Owls Well That Ends Well Donna Andrews, 2005-04-01 Meg Langslow was actually looking forward to renovating the old Victorian mansion she and her boyfriend Michael bought But she wasn't thrilled by the lifetime of junk accumulated by the house's eccentric previous owner Edwina Sprocket The easiest solution would be to hold the end all and be all of gigantic yard sales But when the event attracts the late Miss Sprocket's money hungry heirs the over enthusiastic supporters of some endangered barn owls and customers willing to go to any lengths to uncover a hidden treasure Meg suspects things have gotten a little out of hand Then an antiques dealer is found stuffed in a trunk with his head bashed in and the yard sale turns into a day's long media circus Even worse the suspect arrested for the crime is the person Michael needs to secure academic tenure Now Meg is juggling an ever growing list of suspects And she's going to have to outthink and outwit one clever murderer who lives by everything must go Some Like It Hawk Donna Andrews, 2012-07-17 Meg helps run Caerphilly's summer arts and crafts festival while trying to smoke out a murderer turn up the heat because Some Like it Hawk The hilariously funny Donna Andrews delivers another winner in the award winning New York Times bestselling series that has captured human and avian hearts alike Meg Langslow is plying her blacksmith's trade at Caerphilly Days a festival inspired by her town's sudden notoriety as The Town That Mortgaged Its Jail The lender has foreclosed on all Caerphilly's public buildings and all employees have evacuated except one Phineas Throckmorton the town clerk has been barricaded in the courthouse basement for over a year Mr Throckmorton's long siege has only been possible because of a pre Civil War tunnel leading from the courthouse basement to a crawl space beneath the bandstand The real reason for Caerphilly Days is to conceal the existence of the tunnel the tourist crowds camouflage supply deliveries and the ghastly screeching of the tunnel's rusty trap door is drowned out by as many noisy activities as the locals can arrange But the lender seems increasingly determined to evict Mr Throckmorton and may succeed after one of its executives is found shot apparently from inside the basement Meg and her fellow townspeople suspect that someone hopes to end the siege by framing Mr Throckmorton Unless the real killer can be found quickly the town will have to reveal the secret of the tunnel and the fact that they've been aiding and abetting the basement's inhabitant Meg soon deduces that the killer isn't just trying to end the siege but to conceal information that would help the town reclaim its buildings if the townspeople can find it before the lender destroys it in a gut busting caper that will have giggles and guffaws coming as fast as a four alarm fire A gaggle of praise for Donna Andrews and the Meg Langslow Mystery Series If you long for more fun mysteries à la Janet Evanovich you'll love Donna Andrews's Meg Langslow series Charlotte Observer A long running series that gets better all the time A fine blend of academic satire screwball comedy and murder Booklist As always Andrews laces this entertaining whodunit with wit a fine storyline and characters we've come to know and love Richmond Times Dispatch on The Real Macaw Birder, She Wrote Donna Andrews, 2023-08-01 Meg is relaxing in the hammock taste testing Michael's latest batch of Arnold Palmers and watching the hummingbirds at

Murder With Peacocks Donna Andrews,2006-02-07 Three Weddings And a Murder So far Meg Langslow s summer is not going swimmingly Down in her small Virginia hometown she s maid of honor at the nuptials of three loved ones each of whom has dumped the planning in her capable hands One bride is set on including a Native American herbal purification ceremony while another wants live peacocks on the lawn Only help from the town s drop dead gorgeous hunk disappointingly rumored to be gay keeps Meg afloat in a sea of dotty relatives and outrageous neighbors And in whirl of summer parties and picnics Southern hospitality is strained to the limit by an offensive newcomer who hints at skeletons in the guests closets But it seems this lady has offended one too many when she s found dead in suspicious circumstances followed by a string of accidents some fatal Soon level headed Meg s to do list extends from flower arrangements and bridal registries to catching a killer before the next catered event is her own funeral

taking us on another ride into the wonderful world of Meg Langslow a world filled with laughter as well as the knotty problems Meg always seems to encounter and somehow solve Okay maybe there are people in Antarctica with penguins in their basements but in Virginia Only Meg's dad could manage that one A body down there well that's somewhat more likely It turns out that explaining the penguins presence is easy Meg's dad volunteered to take care of the birds until the future of the bankrupt local zoo could be determined But identifying the body in the basement proves a harder task could it be as Meg fears that of the vanished zoo owner In the small southern town of Caerphilly rumors fly quickly and all the other well meaning citizens who have agreed to take in zoo animals are now worried that they might be stuck with their guests indefinitely So when Meg's dad generously offers to help out anyone who can no longer care for their four legged charges a parade of wild creatures begins to make Meg and Michael's newly renovated house look more like Noah's ark Meg and Michael have been planning to elope in order to avoid the elaborate wedding their mothers have begun to organize a plan that's threatened by both the murder investigation and the carnival of animals The only way to set things right Meg decides is to identify both their uninvited visitor and the killer who put him in their basement The award winning Donna Andrews has demonstrated her immense talent by creating and nurturing a series that continues to delight and surprise with each new book

Mystery Women, Volume Three (Revised) Colleen Barnett, 2010-12-31 Like other fictional characters female sleuths may live in the past or the future They may represent current times with some level of reality or shape their settings to suit an agenda There are audiences for both realism and escapism in the mystery novel It is interesting however to compare the fictional world of the mystery sleuth with the world in which readers live Of course mystery readers do not share one simplistic world They live in urban suburban and rural areas as do the female heroines in the books they read They may choose a book because it has a familiar background or because it takes them to places they long to visit Readers may be rich or poor young or old conservative or liberal So are the heroines What incredible choices there are today in mystery series This three volume encyclopedia of women characters in the mystery novel is like a gigantic menu Like a menu the descriptions of the items that are provided are subjective Volume 3 of Mystery Women as currently updated adds an additional 42 sleuths to the 500 plus who were covered in the initial Volume 3 These are more recently discovered sleuths who were introduced during the period from January 1 1990 to December 31 1999 This more than doubles the number of sleuths introduced in the 1980s 298 of whom were covered in Volume 2 and easily exceeded the 347 series and some outstanding individuals described in Volume 1 which covered a 130 year period from 1860 1979 It also includes updates on those individuals covered in the first edition changes in status short reviews of books published since the first edition through December 31 2008 Crime Writers Elizabeth Haynes, 2011-01-19 This invaluable resource provides information about and sources for researching 50 of the top crime genre writers including websites and other online resources Crime Writers A Research Guide is an easy to use launch pad for learning more about crime fiction authors including those who write traditional mystery novels suspense novels and thrillers with crime elements Emphasizing the best and most popular writers the book covers approximately 50 contemporary authors plus a few classics like Agatha Christie Each entry provides a brief quotation that gives some indication of writing style a biographical sketch lists of major works and awards and research sources including websites biographies criticism and research guides There are also read alikes for selected authors Of special note is the inclusion of websites and other online resources such as blogs and social networking sites which are often overlooked in author reference sources The book also provides an overview of the genre and subgenres a timeline and a comprehensive bibliography An ideal resource for genre studies and literature classes this guide will also be invaluable to readers advisors book club leaders students and genre fans No Nest for the Wicket Donna Andrews, 2007-06-26 LINE YOUR DUCKS UP IN A ROW The hilly terrain next to the old Sprocket house that Meg Langslow and her fianc Michael are refurbishing is the perfect location for an extreme croquet field even the legs of cows and sheep are convenient extra wickets A sport traditionally reserved for genteel society croquet has become all the rage in Caerphilly until it appears someone in town has taken the rage a bit too literally AND KNOCK EM DEAD While stumbling down a steep bank after her ball Meg encounters the body of a fresh female corpse with a mallet sized dent in her head If that isn't reason enough to call a time out it turns out that Michael knew the woman from years before Ever curious Meg decides that playing arm chair sleuth is far more important than working on her game and soon she finds herself in the perfect position to solve the murder mystery or become the next victim Revenge of the Wrought-Iron Flamingos Donna Andrews, 2006-02-07 Every year Yorktown Virginia relives its role in the Revolutionary War by celebrating the anniversary of the British surrender in 1781 This year plans include a re enactment of the original battle and a colonial craft fair Meg Langslow has returned to her home town for the festivities and to sell her wrought iron works of art Except of course for the pink painted flamingos she reluctantly made for her mother's best friend she's hoping to deliver them secretly so she won't get a reputation as the blacksmith who makes those cute wrought iron flamingos Besides she has taken on another responsibility making sure none of her fellow crafters ruin the historical authenticity of the fair with forbidden modern devices like wrist watches calculators or cell phones She's only doing it to keep peace with the mother of the man she loves And Michael himself will don the white and gold uniform of a French officer for the re enactment what actor could resist a role like that Meg's also trying to keep her father from scaring too many tourists with his impersonation of an 18th century physician And to prevent a snooping reporter from publishing any stories about local scandals Not to mention saving her naive brother Rob from the clutches of a con man who might steal the computer game he has invented It's a tough job at least until the swindler is found dead slain in Meg's booth with one of her own wrought iron creations Now Meg must add another item to her already lengthy to do list Don't forget to solve the murder Fortunately the more trouble Meg faces the more fun the reader will have and Meg faces plenty of trouble in this lighthearted and funny novel
