Overdrive L A Constructs The Future 1940 199:

Overdrive Wim de Wit, Christopher James Alexander, 2013 This is a fascinating and intelligently illustrated study of architectural innovation in Los Angeles From 1940 to 1990 Los Angeles rapidly evolved into one of the most populous and influential industrial economic and creative capitals in the world During this era the region was transformed into a laboratory for cutting edge architecture Overdrive examines these experiments and their impacts on modern design reframes the perceptions of Los Angeles dynamic built environment and amplifies the exploration of the city s vibrant architectural legacy The drawings models and images highlighted by Overdrive reveal the complex and often underappreciated facets of Los Angeles and illustrate how the metropolis became an internationally recognized destination with a unique design vocabulary canonical landmarks and a coveted lifestyle

Practicing Utopia Rosemary Wakeman, 2016-04 Rosemary Wakeman provides a sweeping history of new towns those created by fiat rather than out of geographic or economic logic and often intended to break with the tendencies of past development Heralded throughout the twentieth century as solutions to congestion environmental threats architectural malaise and cultural anomie today they are often seen as sad pernicious or merely suburban Wakeman shows that hundreds of such towns sprang from templates and designs not only in North America and across Europe but around the world revealing how different cultures dreamed of re organizing themselves Wakeman also illuminates the missteps and unanticipated results of the initial optimistic choices and impulses
