The Voice of Conscience Lewis Baldwin,2010-09-28 Martin Luther King Jr is celebrated widely as the quintessential model of Christian activism in his time but his understanding of and vision for the church has been surprisingly neglected In this book Lewis V Baldwin contends that King was fundamentally a man of the church Beginning with King s roots in Atlanta s Ebenezer Baptist Church Baldwin traces the evolution of King s attitude toward the church through his college seminary graduate school and civil rights years The emphasis is on King s concept of the church as the voice of conscience Baldwin persuasively claims that King challenged the church over the need for a higher spiritual and ethical ideal and that King s moral leadership and eventual martyrdom did much to reestablish the credibility of the church at a time when some theologians were declaring the death of God Baldwin critiques the contemporary church on the basis of King s prophetic model and concludes by insisting that this model not the entrepreneurial spirituality of the contemporary megachurches embodies the best potential for much needed church renewal

The Sound of Freedom Raymond Arsenault,2009-07-01 Few moments in Civil Rights history are as important as the morning of Sunday April 9 1939 when Marian Anderson sang before a throng of thousands lined up along the Mall by the Lincoln Memorial She had been banned from the Daughters of the American Revolution s Constitution Hall because she was black When Eleanor Roosevelt who resigned from the DAR over the incident took up Anderson s cause however it became a national issue The controversy showed Americans that discrimination was not simply a regional problem As Arsenault shows Anderson s dignity and courage enabled her like a female Jackie Robinson but several years before him to strike a vital blow for civil rights Today the moment still resonates Postcards and CDs of Anderson are sold at the Memorial and Anderson is still considered one of the greats of 20th century American music In a short but richly textured narrative Raymond Arsenault captures the struggle for racial equality in pre WWII America and a moment that inspired blacks and whites alike In rising to the occasion he writes Marion Anderson consecrated the Lincoln Memorial as a shrine of freedom In the 1963 March on Washington Martin Luther King would follow literally in her footsteps Catalogus Librorum Impressorum Bibliothecae Bodleianae in Academia Oxoniensi

B. Bandinel ,1843 Aesthetics, Arts, and Politics in a Global World Daniel Herwitz,2017-01-26 A different set of purposes define culture today than those that preoccupied the world in the immediate decades of decolonization Focusing on art and music in diverse parts of the world Daniel Herwitz explores a world that has largely shifted from the earlier days of nationalism decolonization and cultural exclusion to one of global markets and networks Using examples from India and Mexico to South Africa Australia and China Herwitz argues that the cultural politics and art being produced in these places are now post postcolonial Where the postcolonial downplayed formerly Eurocentric forms and celebrated art with national consciousness the rules for 21st century cultural authenticity are quickly disappearing Young people think of themselves in relation to global culture rather than nation building the project of producing a new and modern art for the incipient and rising postcolonial nation is out of date By examining the shift in which art accesses the past and the rise of trends such as hitching consumer culture to celebrity forms and branding Herwitz s original and engaging exploration of contemporary art captures the ways in which art has given way to a new form of production altering everything from the role of tradition and heritage in contemporary art to the terms of its vision and circulation Century Edition of The American Digest ,1900
