A Twisted Style Maja Tabea Jerrentrup, 2021-05-14 In western cultures some people have chosen a dreadlock hairstyle despite many in mainstream society looking at it in a negative light This book deals with contradictions surrounding the hairstyle such as often representing a protest against the prevailing right-wing political systems yet also emphasizing the white person's power to appropriate any style Based on interviews and close observations in social media the book offers insights into the culture's surrounding dreadlocks and ultimately interprets the phenomenon as a postmodern form of individuality

Social Media in Northern Chile Nell Haynes, 2016-06-06 Based on 15 months of ethnographic research in the city of Alto Hospicio in northern Chile this book describes how the residents use social media and the consequences of this use in their daily lives Nell Haynes argues that social media is a place where Alto Hospicio's residents or Hospiceos express their feelings of marginalisation that result from living in a city far from the national capital and with a notoriously low quality of life compared to other urban areas in Chile In actively distancing themselves from residents in cities such as Santiago Hospiceos identify as marginalised citizens and express a new kind of social norm Yet Haynes finds that by contrasting their own lived experiences with those of people in metropolitan areas Hospiceos are strengthening their own sense of community and the
