

A vibrant Cyber Monday promotional graphic. The background is a deep navy blue. In the top left corner, there are three circles of varying sizes in shades of teal and light blue. A large, light blue diamond shape is centered on the page, with a white rounded rectangle inside it. The words "CYBER" and "MONDAY" are written in large, bold, white-outlined letters across the center. In the bottom right corner, there is a dark blue trapezoidal shape with a white border, containing the text "DISC. UP TO 80% OFF" in white. The text "UP TO" is smaller and positioned to the left of "80%". At the top right and bottom left, there are horizontal rows of small white 'x' marks.

A Cultural History of Shopping in the Modern Age Vicki Howard, 2022-06-02 A Cultural History of Shopping was a Library Journal Best in Reference selection for 2022 In the modern consumer age that emerged after the First World War shopping became a ubiquitous cultural practice Despite its apparent universality the historicity and contingency of shopping should not be ignored its meaning was always inextricably linked to the political material and economic contexts within which it took place Gendered female for the most part shopping continued to evoke different cultural responses embraced as liberatory by some condemned as frivolous by others Business decisions and public policies helped construct the frameworks within which new often American led shopping cultures emerged from downtown department stores to chain stores to suburban shopping malls The digital revolution in shopping that began in the last decade of the 20th century has changed the face of cities and towns and led to the closure of many bricks and mortar stores but as this volume explores the shopper remains very much at the center of Western capitalist societies A Cultural History of Shopping in the Modern Age presents an overview of the period with themes addressing practices and processes spaces and places shoppers and identities luxury and everyday home and family visual and literary representations reputation trust and credit and governance regulation and the state
