with his interest in women's clothing, nail polish, and male crushes. He acknowledges that he feels like a woman inside but he is conflicted over whether these feelings are acceptable because he is the son of a pastor. On Daniel's eighteenth birthday, after years of sorrow, he embraces his identity and tells his family. To no surprise, he receives intense backlash. From death threats, public teasing, family neglect, and even a family member committing suicide, Daniel reads the suicide note and it seems to encourage Daniel to act out certain Bible scriptures. Reading the Bible passages sparks a fire in Daniel to turn his back on his identity and display ways of violence and hatred onto other LGBTQIA members as a calling from God. Unaware how this will come back to haunt him.
