About the Novel Little House on the Prairie follows one family's journey to a new home and new beginnings

Laura lives in a house in the Big Woods

But the area is becoming too crowded

Her father decides to uproot and move out to the prairies where the land is vast and plentiful

On their journey the family must cross two great rivers before the ice melts

They camp out alone with very little between them and their harsh environment

Soon they arrive on the prairie and choose a place to settle

But their hardships don't end there

While they build their new log cabin and get used to their surroundings the family must survive illness fires wolves and an increasing native population

As they finally settle in and prepare to plant their first crop the family's year living on the prairie comes to an end

Little House on the Prairie is an educational story about what life was like in the American Midwest during the 19th century
