What if the gods were condemned to immortality due to the continued storytelling by mortals What if Hades met Persephone in contemporary Singapore Would their story still arrive at its age old conclusion As far as she knows Sophie is an ordinary florist living an ordinary mortal life in Singapore whilst caring for an aged mother suffering from dementia One day a peculiar man with the same name as the ancient Greek god of the Underworld crashes into her life and falls heavier and heavier in her debt Sophie tries to help him recover from amnesia and get back on his feet while in the meantime arranging for him to work for room and board at her flower shop As time goes by she grows accustomed to his company She becomes unsure if she actually wants him to quickly pay off his debt and step out of her life just as abruptly as he had arrived Absurd comedic and tender at the same time this whimsical variation of the classic Greek myth will not fail to amuse and delight

Proto-Romance Morphology Robert A. Hall, Jr., 1984-01-01 This volume deals with the reconstructed morphology of Proto Romance It is the third in a series by this author The first volume 1974 Elsevier deals with the external history of the Romance languages the conditions under which they developed were used and in some instances went out of use The second volume 1976 Elsevier treats the phonology of their common source Proto Romance Together these three volumes aim to cast light not only on Popular Latin speech by means of its surviving elements in the Romance languages but also on the extent to which the comparative method can be regarded as valid and useful in instances where no attestations are available for a language as closely related to the reconstructed proto language as high Classical Latin was to Proto Romance
