Action: An International Comparison Harish C. Jain, Peter Sloane, Frank Horwitz, 2015-03-27 The authors of this comparative study of affirmative action compare the employment practices of six countries the U S Canada Great Britain Northern Ireland India Malaysia and South Africa They look at mandatory quota policies legislated versus voluntary policies goals and timetables restrictions and other policies as well as recruitment selection compensation performance appraisal promotion training and career development Their findings will prove useful for training managers of companies with global operations Entertainment Law & Practice Jon M. Garon, 2005 Entertainment Law and Practice addresses both the practical aspects of entertainment and the fundamental underpinnings of entertainment law The selection of topics is based on what practitioners face and the materials are selected to build a solid theoretical basis for that topic The casebook provides a comprehensive survey of the primary entertainment law practice areas including music and sound recording motion pictures television theatre and publishing Special attention is given to developments of emerging technologies production and distribution of content in various new media In this book readers will find sufficient analysis of publicity rights copyright First Amendment defamation and trademark law to illustrate these doctrinal areas in the context of entertainment practice This is the only book in the entertainment law field to integrate the practitioner's issues with the jurisprudential framework in which these fields exist This approach makes Entertainment Law a natural capstone course for any intellectual property or business curriculum The casebook is especially useful for adjunct professors teaching the course because of its organization around the relevant issues to the practitioner and highly appreciated by the students using the materials QuickBooks Online Training Manual Classroom in a Book TeachUcomp, 2021-06-07 Complete classroom
