What Is a Side Hustle—and Why Teens Need One

A side hustle is any activity, aside from a job, where you earn money. It could be a part-time business, a freelance gig, or a hobby that makes money. Side hustles are a great way to earn extra money, learn new skills, and explore different career options. They can also be a fun way to spend your free time. For teens, having a side hustle can help them develop important life skills, such as time management, financial literacy, and customer service. It can also give them a sense of responsibility and independence. There are many different types of side hustles, and teens can choose one that fits their interests and schedule. Some common side hustles for teens include babysitting, dog walking, tutoring, and selling handmade items. No matter what side hustle you choose, it's important to be responsible and to make sure you're not interfering with your schoolwork or other obligations.
