Evaluation of the Administration's Fiscal Year 2007 Budget for the Federal Transit Administration United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs,2009

The Economics of Housing Policy D. C. Stafford,2025-11-18 In the late 1970s the role of the state in the finance provision and legal control of housing had increased enormously during the previous sixty years But despite massive government intervention in the housing market the housing problem was considered by many to be worsening Originally published in 1978 The Economics of Housing Policy critically appraises the nature extent and economic rationale for government intervention in the private and public housing sectors and explores the effects of policies through fiscal and social instruments in the specific housing markets Individual chapters analyse the strategies applied to the owner occupied private rented and public housing sectors The fundamental concern of this study is with the persistent reluctance on the part of the government to accept the economic consequences of political intervention as each new act had attempted to remedy the adverse symptoms of previous legislation The rented sectors had become increasingly inflexible affecting household mobility free choice and the quality of housing stock A re creation of housing markets based on consumer preference rather than political predilection and bureaucratic control is advocated in order to overcome the housing problem at the time

The Report: Indonesia 2018 Oliver Cornock,2018 In 2018 the Indonesian economy recorded a growth rate of 5.2% the highest in five years This was in spite of a slump in the rupiah and a trade imbalance and took place against a backdrop of rising US interest rates and deteriorating trade relations between the world's two biggest economies The country's emphasis on industrialisation and infrastructure development is laying the foundations for continued economic growth Moreover the archipelago's growing middle class population geographical position and human capital development agenda alongside progress in free trade agreements make it a strong contender on the global economic stage The country holds considerable potential for developing entrepreneurial and creative prowess already being home to four unicorn startups Investors have continued to look beyond traditional destinations with emerging cities like Surabaya and Palembang showing strong possibilities for economic growth Although the outcome of the April 2019 national election will determine the course of further infrastructure development and tax reforms the future looks promising with predictions of continued growth accompanied by stable inflation
