Psychopharmacology Abstracts, 1977 Monitoring depression and anxiety symptoms: Scales and measurements Michael Noll-Hussong, Jan Ilhan Kizilhan, 2023-07-06 Teaching Psychology James Hartley, Wilbert James McKeachie, 1990 This publication is the first to cover the entire field of teaching psychology and includes teaching methods advising and curriculum planning as well as special problems in teaching laboratory and statistics courses The articles selected provide thought provoking reading for an international readership Each of twelve subject oriented sections contains a brief introduction five articles and suggested further readings for those wishing to pursue a particular topic in more detail

Women and Addiction Kathleen T. Brady, Sudie E. Back, Shelly F. Greenfield, 2009-04-02 For many years addiction research focused almost exclusively on men Yet scientific awareness of sex and gender differences in substance use disorders has grown tremendously in recent decades This volume brings together leading authorities to review the state of the science and identify key directions for research and clinical practice Concise focused chapters illuminate how biological and psychosocial factors influence the etiology and epidemiology of substance use disorders in women their clinical presentation course and psychiatric comorbidities treatment access and treatment effectiveness Prevalent substances of abuse are examined as are issues facing special populations Hearings, Reports and Prints of the Senate Committee on the Judiciary

United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary, 1960 Keynotes and characteristics with comparisons of some of the leading remedies of the materia medica Henry C. Allen, 1898 Keynotes and Characteristics with Comparisons of Some of the Leading Remedies of the Materia Medica Henry Clay Allen, 1898 WAR TRAUMA IN VETERANS AND THEIR FAMILIES Jamshid A. Marvasti, 2012-04-01 The mission in writing this book was to look beyond politics in order to explore the extent of the ongoing and long term human cost of war and military occupation This book addresses the suffering of our troops and their families and our responsibility as a society first to acknowledge and diagnose this suffering and then to care for those who are affected by it The first of two sections Clinical Issues of War Trauma contains chapters on signs and symptoms diagnosis and pharmacotherapy of war trauma This section explores the vast variety of pathology such as TBI PTSD suicide affective disorder addiction spiritual distress and forensic aspects of combat trauma To supplement or advance beyond medication and counseling the editor designed a set of 12 Step Self Help Principles for Combat Veterans with PTSD inspired by addiction self help programs The second section Witnesses to War is comprised of four first hand accounts of experiences in combat zones during and after conflict Some of the chapters of this book were written by professionals with direct involvement in combat from WW II to the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan This outstanding book will be a standard text at military educational institutions and highly valuable to civilian professionals practicing psychiatry family counseling and forensic psychology in the military system The Practice of Research in Social Work Rafael J. Engel, Russell K. Schutt, 2005-02-15 The Practice of Research in Social Work introduces research methods as an integrated set of techniques for investigating the problems encountered in social work This innovative text encourages students to connect technique and substance to understand research methods as an integrated whole and to appreciate the value of qualitative and quantitative alternatives The text enables students to both critically evaluate research literature and to develop the skills to engage in research and practice evaluation Each chapter shows how particular research methods have been used to investigate an interesting social work research question and content on research ethics and diversity is infused into each chapter The goal of validity is introduced early in the text and used as an integrating theme throughout the book Methods of particular concern in social work research are highlighted with chapters devoted to group survey single subject and qualitative designs The text is lively and accessible yet the coverage is thorough and up to date
