Bergeron,Melody Bradbury-Wolff,2003-04 A clear and concise guide to teaching reading strategies to young learners Resisting the Kinder-Race Christopher P. Brown,2021 Kindergarten has changed Many believe that it no longer reflects a nurturing environment but instead has become a race for children to learn skills so they are ready for the academic achievement tests that they will take continuously throughout their time in school Resisting the Kinder Race examines how the race came about why it must change and how all stakeholders in the early childhood and elementary school communities must take part in the reform process The author draws on his own research to consider how the Kinder Race might be reimaged through more democratic principles of schooling Brown offers both practical and political strategies that can alter the day to day practices of the kindergarten classroom and the policies that currently define PreK 12 education in the United States This resource will help readers see kindergarten as an educational environment that expands the learning of every child Book Features Provides an in depth glimpse into a typical day in the Kinder Race Examines how kindergarten devolved from a garden that nurtures children into a race that dashes them from skill to skill Brings together what are often siloed conversations among stakeholder groups Highlights how kindergarten is now primarily defined through an economic lens and how this framing of learning earning and consuming might be rethought Employs varied conceptual frameworks to investigate how stakeholders across different levels of public education make sense of the changed kindergarten Illuminates the complexity of what is occurring in today s kindergarten and puts forward practical and achievable ideas for change Educational Psychology Australian Edition Anita Woolfolk,Kay Margetts,2012-07-25 Learning and teaching is an integrated process and theory and practice cannot be separated As in the previous Australasian edition Educational Psychology 3e continues to emphasise the educational implications and applications of child development cognitive science learning and teaching Recurring themes throughout the text include ideas about education social and socio cultural aspects of education schools families and community development learning and curriculum and effective teaching Author Kay Margetts incorporates Australasian perspectives and applications using the work of Australasian researchers and teachers Numerous examples case studies guidelines and practical tips from experienced teachers are used in the text to explore the connections between knowledge understanding and practice When Relationships Matter Crystal Tanyag Goins,2021-02-08 When the whole world shuts down what is left to rely on Human relationships In Mrs Goins classroom these relationships are called partnerships In this book Crystal Goins shares her own personal story in creating a partnership approach to classroom management Through her system called PART she teaches her students and parents how to partner with the teacher in all areas of school readiness and academic success She explicitly teaches routines and procedures with her students in mind She uses a set of sayings called

Real Talk that encourages students to communicate with themselves and others in positive ways She provides a family like classroom environment where any student can feel like he or she belongs Lastly she makes learning fun again Teacher as Researcher: Action Research by Elementary Teachers Jay Feng, 2012-12-21 A collection of action research reports by elementary classroom teachers Power, Culture, and Family-School Relations Jen Stacy, 2025-01-30 Power Culture and Family School Relations Towards Culturally Sustaining Practices explores the extent to which common practices in school based family outreach advance equity or sustain the status quo in power and cultural relations Using a rich ethnographic account of a school based family literacy program in Nebraska the book unfolds the daily cultural practices of the program so that readers may visualize and contemplate how and if the program serves newcomer and refugee families within the unique context of the New Latine Diaspora The author draws upon critical theory to showcase how neoliberal and deficit ideologies are at play throughout the different aspects of the program the influence these ideologies have on the participants and the tactics used by the caregivers to resist and change the programmatic structures and curriculum to meet their needs As such the book invites educators administrators and scholars into the nebulous and difficult conversation about how schools paradoxical entities that often colonize but prospectively liberate must not just rethink how they work with parents and caregivers but rather dismantle traditional cultural practices that seek to assimilate minoritized families Showcasing the power of ethnography as a tool which can be used to support educators and scholars to understand cultural elements of family outreach programs on a semiotic level and how transforming these semiotic building blocks can lead to equitable relationships it will appeal to scholars and researchers with interests in adult education social foundations of education critical ethnography multilingual Adult Basic Education and family outreach Teaching Thinking John N.
