Rhizomes Nathalie Ramière, Rachel Varshney, 2021-02-19 This volume Rhizomes is a challenging path into a very multidisciplinary set of papers Papers range across cultural studies and film to applied linguistics to sociolinguistics and as gathered in this one volume the result of postgraduate student research of a very high order they force readers to think critically of disciplines their assumed boundaries and most importantly the usefulness of assuming the enduring value of such boundaries This is not to say that anything goes but the diversity of areas under scrutiny means that sharper re thinking of one's own comfort zones is necessarily one key outcome when confronted with a volume like this This is one advantage of the selected papers besides the obvious one of having at your finger tips a simple way of delving into a challenging diversity Brian Ridge Campion College Sydney This is a wonderful collection of papers which demonstrates the power and vitality of contemporary literary and cultural research The scope of the papers the diversity of the subject matter and the willingness of their authors to work across disciplinary boundaries work together to create an exemplary collection of research for the twenty first century multidisciplinary multigeneric and multimodal like 21st century texts and media Greg Hainge's opening paper sets the stage for the diverse and engaging papers that follow With his own examples of rhizomatics drawn from music Greg immediately has the reader acknowledging the multidisciplinary and multimodality of contemporary texts and so the need for research that can address the richness and complexity of these texts In Part 1 we have two papers that address the issue of the limitations of conventional research methodology in their own fields language acquisition film studies and propose alternative and more productive methodologies The exciting thing about this section is that these are fields normally considered very different and without much to say to one another and yet the combination works to create a dialogue that extends across these and many other fields of research Most importantly both challenge the dichotomising of research and analytical methods that has worked to impoverish their fields and the research on which it is based Part 2 presents papers on a range of marginalised social positionings and experiences and in the process demonstrates both the power of research to uncover what has been ignored or elided in contemporary histories how many westerners know of the long history of Chinese women in film Or of an Aboriginal Taiwanese literature as well as the power of new perspectives new ways of thinking the research subject to open up areas of study such as dating manuals and country music both conventionally dismissed as inherently trivial and or sexist In Part 3 the papers all play brilliantly with the notion of connectivity demonstrating for readers the inextricability of texts and meaning systems verbal visual and other with the cultural contexts in which they operate and so the diverse ways they may be deployed These papers banish forever any reliance on a formalist reading or methodology for the analysis of text and meaning And again the range of subject matter is breath taking and argues the need for cross disciplinary transdisciplinary and multidisciplinary research practice Part 4 takes the reader into the realm of transformations challenging the ways in which textual and systemic changes articulate profound cultural changes in the societies that produce them So we learn about grammatical interventions in the Chinese language as feminine and neuter pronouns are added to the gender free Chinese language and consider the major cultural change that both caused this change and is subsequently produced by it We consider the ways in which cinema has evolved as an art form under the influence of its material and verbal technologies And we consider the ways in which Chinese poetry has entered a range of cultural practices in the west and the east and again consider how its traditional meanings and significance are maintained and communicate to these new contexts and the nature of the transcultural experience this generates For the academic student or interested reader this collection offers a breath taking scope of subject matter and a vital and engaged approach to the material that makes this collection a research page turner Professor Anne Cranny Francis Department of Critical and Cultural Studies Macquarie University Sydney Enlightenment and Desire in Romance Nations Pasquale De Marco,2025-08-15 In the heart of romance nations where passion and enlightenment intertwine lies a captivating tapestry of stories waiting to be unveiled This book embarks on a journey through the literary historical and cultural landscapes of these nations exploring the profound impact of Enlightenment ideals and the eternal pursuit of desire Through the lens of literature art and cultural traditions this book delves into the unique contributions of romance nations to the global cultural landscape It examines the interplay between Enlightenment ideals and the enduring power of desire shedding light on how these nations have grappled with questions of identity belonging and the pursuit of happiness Readers will encounter a kaleidoscope of perspectives from the fiery passion of star crossed lovers to the quiet resilience of those who endure the trials of life They will witness the triumphs and tribulations of nations as they struggle for independence grapple with social injustice and strive to build a better future for their people And amidst it all they will discover the enduring power of desire the unyielding flame that propels us forward even in the face of adversity More than a mere exploration of history and culture this book is an invitation to embark on a journey of self discovery It delves into the universal human experiences that transcend national boundaries exploring the ways in which we navigate the complexities of love loss and the search for meaning in an ever changing world Through the stories characters and ideas presented within these pages readers will find themselves contemplating their own desires aspirations and the paths they choose to forge in life This book is an ode to the indomitable spirit of romance nations a testament to the transformative power of Enlightenment ideals and a celebration of the eternal pursuit of desire It is an invitation to immerse oneself in the rich tapestry of human experience to question to ponder and to find solace and inspiration in the stories of those who came before us With its captivating narrative and insightful analysis this book offers a fresh perspective on the cultural and intellectual heritage of romance nations It is a must read for anyone interested in exploring the complex relationship between Enlightenment ideals desire and the human condition If you like this book write a review The Romance Languages: A Modern Perspective Pasquale De
