Chinafy Joanna Hutchins, 2023-06-15 Western business leaders make two key assumptions about China that China is always copying the West and that the West is the seat of innovation The truth is surprising China is both copying and innovating and while Western businesses are busy looking for the next new thing China is rapidly iterating on what s already been done and pushing ahead While businesses in the West are getting disrupted and left behind the savvy leaders among them can learn innovate and excel by copying China s playbook Chinafy distils the key lessons from China to unlock business potential anywhere in the world These lessons serve as catalysts for how to Chinafy innovation for growth Taking a deep dive into the workings of China s most successful brands from Haier to ByteDance author Joanna Hutchins reveals what it takes to get ahead in the world of business and innovation

Getting to the Top in the USSR: Cyclical Patterns in the Leadership Succession Process

R. Judson Mitchell,1990 The Internet of Animals Deborah Lupton,2023-03-07 The internet is made of cats is a half jokingly made claim Today animals of all shapes and sizes inhabit our digital spaces including companion animals wildlife feral animals and livestock In this book Deborah Lupton explores how digital technologies and datafication are changing our relationships with other animals Playfully building on the concept of The Internet of Things she discusses the complex feelings that have developed between people and animals through the use of digital devices from social media to employing animal like robots as companions and carers The book brings together a range of perspectives including those of sociology cultural geography environmental humanities critical animal studies and internet studies to consider how these new digital technologies are contributing to major changes in human animal relationships at both the micropolitical and macropolitical levels As Lupton shows while digital devices and media have strengthened people s relationships to other creatures these technologies can also objectify animals as things for human entertainment therapy or economic exploitation This original and engaging book will be of interest to scholars and students across the social sciences and humanities Filterworld Kyle Chayka,2025-01-21 From New Yorker staff writer and author of The Longing for Less Kyle Chayka comes a timely history and investigation of a world ruled by algorithms which determine the shape of culture itself From trendy restaurants to city grids to TikTok and Netflix feeds the world round algorithmic recommendations dictate our experiences and choices The algorithm is present in the familiar neon signs and exposed brick of Internet cafes be it in Nairobi or Portland and the skeletal modern furniture of Airbnbs in cities big and small Over the last decade this network of mathematically determined decisions has taken over almost unnoticed informing the songs we listen to the friends with whom we stay in touch as we ve grown increasingly accustomed to our insipid new normal This ever tightening web woven by algorithms is called Filterworld Kyle Chayka shows us how online and offline spaces alike have been engineered for seamless consumption becoming a source of pervasive anxiety in the process Users of technology have been forced to contend with data driven equations that try to anticipate their desires and often get them wrong What results is a state of docility that allows tech companies to curtail human experiences human lives for profit But to have our tastes behaviors and emotions governed by computers while convenient does nothing short of call the very notion of free will into question In Filterworld Chayka traces this creeping machine guided curation as it infiltrates the furthest reaches of our digital physical and psychological spaces With algorithms increasingly influencing not just what culture we consume but what culture is produced urgent questions arise What happens when shareability supersedes messiness innovation and creativity the qualities that make us human What does it mean to make a choice when the options have been so carefully arranged for us Is personal freedom possible on the Internet To the last question Filterworld argues yes but to escape Filterworld and even transcend it we must first understand it Free Trade and the US-China Trade War Yoon Heo,2022-08-22 This book provides an analysis of the global trading system and its implications The author uses network theory to examine the sustainability of the free trade system and its future The book attempts to find out what the future of free trade could be and how the global trading system would unfold The book assesses four main waves of challenges to free trade and open society the COVID 19 pandemic the US China trade war economic nationalism and the Fourth Industrial Revolution While some of these challenges have been casting their shadows on the global economic system for some time others are relatively novel and their full effects are yet to be seen This book also looks at the challenges they would present to multilateralism and global trade development This book will interest those who wish to have a better understanding of the US China trade war and the challenges to the global trading system Popular Science ,1925-02 Popular Science gives our readers the information and tools to improve their technology and their world The core belief that Popular Science and our readers share The future is going to be better and science and technology are the driving forces that will help make it better
