The Phoenix's UNLIKELY Prodigy MaryAnn Clarke, 2022-09-27 For the smartest girl in her grad class Jeannie made a pretty stupid mistake One that she's spent ten years coming back from Voted Most Likely to End up in Jail Phoenix did one better He's spent the past ten years being dead Phoenix My high school years were as grim and gritty as could be so when the opportunity to disappear presented itself I grabbed it with both fists and didn't look back Ten years later I've mellowed and I'm searching for a place to put down roots craving the friends I left behind and the family and home I never had What I didn't expect To reunite with my high school crush Jeannie Turns out she's got a little baggage of her own that throws a big curve in my plans She wants nothing to do with me an embarrassing reminder of her biggest mistake I see this as a gift an opportunity to have everything I'm looking for and more And ten years in the special forces has given me the confidence determination and skills to get whatever I want I'm not giving up until I get it Jeannie I had my life all planned Yeah I was that girl Type A Honour Roll the apple of my family's eye my ambitious career paved in gold Voted Most Likely to Win a Nobel Prize in Mathematics no less One huge swerve later and I'm living a very different life I went from Prodigy to Prodigal Daughter overnight Resolutely independent single mother self educated self employed and self determining I don't rely on anyone My mistake my problem That's how I see it Now the last accomplishment that will take me back where I belong is finally within reach What I don't expect when I finally return to my hometown To reconnect with the guy I thought I'd never and I mean never see again Why Because he was dead Now he won't leave me alone despite my determination to avoid him Once again the best laid plans go wildly off course with unexpected and unlikely consequences
