Iron and Steel Engineer, 1990 Contains the proceedings of the Association Consumer Behavior David L. Loudon, Albert J. Della Bitta, 1984 Abstract A college textbook discusses various theoretical concepts of consumer behavior and marketing research and their practical applications The 21 chapters of the text are organized into 5 principal sections covering basic fundamentals and models for assessing consumer behavior developing an understanding of consumer behavior relative to marketing strategies environmental influences affecting consumer behavior from the general cultural subcultural i e ethnic social class structure family level and personal influence standpoints specific determinants of consumer behavior e g motivational aspects learning and memory aspects self conceptual factors attitude characteristics and their modification and factors influencing consumer decision processes with respect to recognition of decision problems and purchasing processes and behavior Photographs charts and tables are used extensively Specific case studies are reviewed at the end of each of the 5 sections and each chapter includes discussion questions wz Labor Relations John W. Budd, 2005 Labor Relations Striking a Balance 1st Edition by John Budd presents labor relations as a system for striking a balance between the employment relationship goals of efficiency equity and voice and between the rights of labor and management Budd s Labor Relations broadens the narrow process focus of existing labor relations texts by placing the discussion of contemporary U S processes into the context of underlying themes what are the goals of labor relations are those goals being fulfilled and are reforms needed This textbook replaces the tired paradigm of labor relations equals detailed work rules with the dynamic paradigm of labor relations equals balancing workplace goals and rights Labor law union organizing bargaining dispute resolution and contract administration are central topics but these processes are not presented as self evidently good These topics are placed in the broader context of the goals of the employment relationship conflicting rights and the environment of the 21st Century This broader context serves to make labor relations more engaging and relevant to students It also allows instructors to raise important big picture ideas while covering the applied business functions and strategies of the existing processes
