Great Habits, Great Readers Paul Bambrick-Santoyo, Aja Settles, Juliana Worrell, 2013-06-10 A book that brings the habits of reading to life Great readers are not made by genetics or destiny but by the habits they build habits that are intentionally built by their teachers The early formal years of education are the key to reversing the reading gap and setting up children for success But K 4 education seems to widen the gap between stronger and weaker readers not close it Today the Common Core further increases the pressure to reach high levels of rigor What can be done This book includes the strategies systems and lessons from the top classrooms that bring the habits of reading to life creating countless quality opportunities for students to take one of the most complex skills we as people can know and to perform it fluently and easily Offers clear teaching strategies for teaching reading to all students no matter what level Includes more than 40 video examples from real classrooms Written by Paul Bambrick Santoyo bestselling author of Driven by Data and Leverage Leadership Great Habits Great Readers puts the focus on learning habits reading habits guided reading and independent reading NOTE Content video and other supplementary materials are not included as part of the e book file but are available for download after purchase

Houghton Mifflin Reading, 2003 Grade 1 Learning to Read in a New Language Eve Gregory, 2008-03-03 This book is a helpful edition to a field where there is a limited amount of good literature to support teachers dealing with second language acquisition in the classroom ESCalate Gregory's book is an important and timely contribution to the literature on literacy biliteracy second language learning and early childhood education synthesizing cutting edge research perspectives and teaching approaches in a clear and accessible way Overall it is a terrific resource Dinah Volk Across the world an increasing number of young children are learning to read in languages different from their mother tongue and there is a clear need for a book which addresses the ways in which these children should be taught Eve Gregory's book is unique in doing so Building upon the ideas proposed in Making Sense of a New World this second edition widens its scope arguing for the limitations of policies designed for monolingual minds in favour of methodologies which put plurilingualism at the centre of literacy tuition This book offers a practical reading programme an Inside Out starting from experience and Outside In starting from literature approach to teaching which can be used with individuals small groups and whole classes It uses current sociocultural theory while drawing on examples of children from America Australia Britain China France Singapore South Africa and Thailand who are engaged in learning to read nursery rhymes and songs storybooks letters the Bible and the Qur an as well as school texts in languages they do not speak fluently Gregory argues that in order for literacy tuition to be successful reading must make sense children must feel part of a community of readers There is no common method which they use to learn but rather a shared aim to which they aspire making sense of a new world through new words Eve Gregory is Professor of Language and Culture in Education at Goldsmiths University of London
