New Perspectives In Greek Linguistics:

New Perspectives in Greek Linguistics Nikolaos Lavidas, Elissavet Nouchoutidou, Marietta Sionti, 2020-10-27 New Perspectives in Greek Linguistics is a selection of papers presenting some of the ongoing research in Greek Linguistics. The contributions in this volume which have their origin in the 4th Athens Postgraduate Conference in Linguistics refer to various theoretical frameworks and cover a wide range of topics from phonology of dialects to acquisition of syntax; however they share the common reference to Greek and Theoretical Linguistics. The second common feature is a tendency to investigate already known problems using new methods considering different factors from previous research or introducing innovative ideas. The volume is dedicated to Professor Gaberell Drachman and Professor Angeliki Malikouti Drachman as a small token of gratitude for their ceaseless presence and their contribution to Theoretical Linguistics to Greek Linguistics and to postgraduate studies in Linguistics in Greece. This volume is of particular interest to linguists working on various areas of Greek Linguistics especially those who would like to keep up with ongoing research. It presents an opportunity to see the application of linguistic theory in Greek and the current comparative research.

New Perspectives on Judeo-Spanish and the Linguistic History of the Sephardic Jews, 2024-05-06 At the intersection of Jewish studies and linguistic research the essays assembled in this book approach the topic of the languages of Sephardic Jews from different perspectives spanning chronologically from the Middle Ages to the present day. Drawing on diverse sources from medical glossaries to inquisition archives from rabbinic responsa to recordings of today's speakers the scholars collaborating on this project have endeavoured to reconstruct fragments of a complex and elusive linguistic reality which over the centuries has been shaped by the historical experience of its speakers. An innovative collection of rigorously conducted synchronic and diachronic studies that contributes to expanding our knowledge and opening new perspectives on crucial issues such as the effects of contact on the linguistic structures, the possibility of a norm for polycentric languages, the relationship between the lexicon of a language and the vitality of its speech community.

New Perspectives on Romance Linguistics: Phonetics, phonology and dialectology Chiyo Nishida, Jean-Pierre Montreuil, 2006-01-01 This is the second of two volumes emanating from the Linguistic Symposium on Romance Languages held at the University of Texas at Austin in February 2005. It features the keynote addresses delivered by Prof Jacques Durand on the Phonology of Contemporary French Project and Prof John Charles Smith on skeuomorphy and refunctionalization. It also includes eleven contributions by reputed scholars on topics ranging from phonetics, phonology, morphophonology, dialectology, sociolinguistics and language variation. Formal phonology papers favor the model of Optimality Theory while phonetic measurements serve as the basis for sociolinguistic and dialectometric studies. Many of these studies emphasize new comparative typological approaches to Romance data including many non-standard varieties of French, Italian and Spanish. This volume will be of interest to all Romance linguists.

New Perspectives on (Im)Politeness and Interpersonal Communication Lucis Fernández Amaya, María de la O Hernández López, Reyes Gómez Morón, 2012-12-18 New Perspectives on Im Politeness and Interpersonal Communication gathers eleven studies by prominent scholars which explore issues related to im politeness in human communication The study of linguistic im politeness is undoubtedly one of the central concerns in the field of pragmatics as attested to by the numerous conferences and journals currently dedicated to the topic the various theoretical models and approaches developed or developing so far and the seemingly endless list of insightful and inspiring empirical studies tackling the topic from a wide variety of angles This volume contributes to the subfield of social pragmatics by putting together works that review the state of the art of im politeness studies analysing im politeness in media contexts like the Internet or dubbed films and other contexts looking into the effects and consequences of some speech acts for social interaction drawing implications for language teaching and approaching some of the linguistic mechanisms which help to communicate im politeness Resulting from the efforts made by specialists in the field the chapters in this volume offer additional evidence that examining the complexity of interpersonal communication from different standpoints can benefit a more complete understanding of social interaction in general Their scope and practical applications demonstrate the transversality and versatility of interpersonal communication The editors hope that these works will retain scholars interest and attention for some time to come and spark off further research

New Perspectives on the Nativity Jeremy Corley, 2009-09-17 The infancy narratives represent some of the most beautiful and intriguing passages in the Gospels The stories they relate are also arguably the most well known in the Christian tradition from the child in the manger to the Magi paying homage to the infant Jesus However there have been relatively few attempts to consider the stories of the Nativity from modern academic perspectives examining them from feminist perspectives political standpoints in cinematic representations as well as more standard but up to date academic approaches New Perspectives on the Nativity attempts to redress this providing a fresh insights on these crucial Christian texts from a cast of distinguished contributors At the outset Henry Wansbrough surveys scholarship on the infancy narratives since Raymond Brown s landmark study The Birth of the Messiah 2nd edition 1993 Thereafter four chapters deal with Luke s infancy story Ian Boxall demonstrates how the narrative offers subtle foreshadowings of the passion and resurrection Barbara Reid surveys Luke s portrayal of three female prophets Elizabeth Mary and Anna who prepare for the later presentation of Jesus as a prophet Leonard Maluf suggests a new understanding of Zechariah s canticle the Benedictus by situating it firmly in its Jewish background Finally Nicholas King indicates how the inn of the nativity prefigures the later journey of the gospel message The next four contributions are concerned with Matthew s narrative Warren Carter shows how the conflict between the infant Jesus and the ruling powers is repeated more dramatically in the life and death of the adult Christ Benedict Viviano proposes that the three stages in Matthew s genealogy of Jesus belong within a grand scheme of seven ages of salvation history Bernard Robinson investigates Matthew s nativity story within the context of biblical and Greco Roman history writing Christopher Fuller highlights the carnivalesque approach to the Magi story in Pasolini s classic film The Gospel According to St Matthew Three final essays focus on the religious value of the infancy stories Ann Loades reflects on late 20th century poems dealing with the nativity John Kaltner explores the references to Jesus birth found in Islamic tradition Finally Thomas O Loughlin argues that contemporary preoccupations with historical investigation can blind us to the mystery presented in the nativity stories

Information Structuring in Discourse ,2020-11-30 A text usually provides more information than a random sequence of clauses It combines sentence level information to larger units which are glued together by coherence relations that may induce a hierarchical discourse structure Since linguists have begun to investigate texts as more complex units of linguistic communication it has been controversially discussed what the appropriate level of analysis of discourse structure ought to be and what the criteria to identify minimal discourse units are Linguistic structure and more precisely the extraction and integration of syntactic semantic and pragmatic information is shown to be at the center of text processing and discourse comprehension However its role in the establishment of basic building blocks for a coherent discourse is still a subject of debate This collection addresses these issues using various methodological approaches It presents current results in theoretical diachronic experimental as well as computational research on structuring information in discourse
