New Queer Cinema The Directors Cut:

New Queer Cinema B. Ruby Rich, 2013-03-26 B Ruby Rich designated a brand new genre the New Queer Cinema NQC in her groundbreaking article in the Village Voice in 1992 This movement in film and video was intensely political and aesthetically innovative made possible by the debut of the camcorder and driven initially by outrage over the unchecked spread of AIDS The genre has grown to include an entire generation of queer artists filmmakers and activists As a critic curator journalist and scholar Rich has been inextricably linked to the New Queer Cinema from its inception This volume presents her new thoughts on the topic as well as bringing together the best of her writing on the NQC She follows this cinematic movement from its origins in the mid 1980s all the way to the present in essays and articles directed at a range of audiences from readers of academic journals to popular glossies and weekly newspapers She presents her insights into such NQC pioneers as Derek Jarman and Isaac Julien and investigates such celebrated films as Go Fish Brokeback Mountain Itty Bitty Titty Committee and Milk In addition to exploring less known films and international cinemas including Latin American and French films and videos she documents the more recent incarnations of the NQC on screen on the web and in art galleries

LGBTQ Film Festivals Antoine Damians, 2025-10-01 While scholars have theorized major film festivals they have ignored smaller ephemeral events In taking seriously minor European and North American LGBTQ festivals which often only exist as traces within archival collections this book revisits festival studies methodological and theoretical apparatuses As the first critique of festival studies from within LGBTQ Film Festivals argues that both festivals and queer film cultures are by definition ephemeral The book is organized around two concepts First critical festival studies examines the political project and disciplinary assumptions that structure festival research Second the festival as a method pays attention to festivals role as producers of knowledge it argues that festivals are not mere objects of research but also actors already shaping academic industrial and popular cinematic knowledge Drawing on the author s experience on the festival circuit this book pays homage to the labour of queer organizers critics and scholars and opens up new avenues for festival research

100 Queer Films Since Stonewall Chelsea McCracken, Matt Connolly, 2025-05-01 100 Queer Films identifies 100 films that shaped the trajectory of queer cinema connected with larger movements and showcased the artistry of queer filmmaking In addition to those films that already hold significant places in queer film canons this volume examines often overlooked titles By highlighting hidden gems alongside well known classics this book makes a valuable accessible contribution to queer film studies While queer films have existed since the beginning of cinema this book focuses on films released after the Stonewall uprising in 1969 Stonewall is considered a turning point for queer politics and representation and the 50 years since that event have generated an explosion of queer creativity The book describes significant formal elements of each film and connects them to their interrelated contexts By moving in chronological order it introduces a contemporary history of queer film and provides an overview of major developments in LGBTQ communities cultures and politics This volume presents a framework for understanding the value of queer film French and Spanish Queer Film Chris Perriam,2016-06-02 The book advances the current state of film audience research and of our knowledge of sexuality in transnational contexts by analysing how French LGBTQ films are seen in Spain and Spanish ones in France It studies films in various media and platforms and their reception across four languages Spanish French Catalan English and considers and engages with participants from across a range of digital and physical audience locations with a particular focus on festivals It examines films that chronicle the local in portraying national and sub national identities and draws on the regional global translating and transferring foreign models of non heterosexual experience No comparative and crosscutting study with audience research at its heart has yet been undertaken Lesbian Cinema after Queer Theory Bradbury-Rance Clara Bradbury-Rance,2019-01-30 The unprecedented increase in lesbian representation over the past two decades has paradoxically coincided with queer theory's radical transformation of the study of sexuality In Lesbian Cinema after Queer Theory Clara Bradbury Rance argues that this contradictory context has yielded new kinds of cinematic language through which to give desire visual form By offering close readings of key contemporary films such as Blue Is the Warmest Colour Water Lilies and Carol alongside a broader filmography encompassing over 300 other films released between 1927 and 2018 the book provokes new ways of understanding a changing field of representation Bradbury Rance resists charting a narrative of representational progress or shoring up the lesbian's categorisation in the newly available terms of the visible Instead she argues for a feminist framework that can understand lesbianism's queerness Drawing on a provocative theoretical and visual corpus Lesbian Cinema after Queer Theory reveals the conditions of lesbian legibility in the twenty first century Queer Cinema in the World Karl Schoonover,Rosalind Galt,2016-11-17 Proposing a radical vision of cinema's queer globalism Karl Schoonover and Rosalind Galt explore how queer filmmaking intersects with international sexual cultures geopolitics and aesthetics to disrupt dominant modes of world making Whether in its exploration of queer cinematic temporality the paradox of the queer popular or the deviant ecologies of the queer pastoral Schoonover and Galt reimagine the scope of queer film studies The authors move beyond the gay art cinema canon to consider a broad range of films from Chinese lesbian drama and Swedish genderqueer documentary to Bangladeshi melodrama and Bolivian activist video Schoonover and Galt make a case for the centrality of queerness in cinema and trace how queer cinema circulates around the globe institutionally via film festivals online consumption and human rights campaigns but also affectively in the production of a queer sensorium In this account cinema creates a uniquely potent mode of queer worldliness one that disrupts normative ways of being in the world and forges revised modes of belonging Queer Cinema in America Aubrey Malone,2019-11-11 Explore queer cinema over
