Race Lessons Prentice T. Chandler, Todd S. Hawley, 2017-05-01 We hold that the mission of social studies is not attainable without attention to the ways in which race and racism play out in society past present and future In a follow up to the book Doing Race in Social Studies 2015 this new volume addresses practical considerations of teaching about race within the context of history geography government economics and the behavioral sciences Race Lessons Using Inquiry to Teach About Race in Social Studies addresses the space between the theoretical and the practical and provides teachers and teacher educators with concrete lesson ideas for how to engage learners with social studies content and race Oftentimes social studies teachers do not teach about race because of several factors teacher fear personal notions of colorblindness and attachment to multicultural narratives that stress assimilation This volume will begin to help teachers and teacher educators start the conversation around realistic and practical race pedagogy The chapters included in this volume are written by prominent social studies scholars and classroom teachers This work is unique in that it represents an attempt to use Critical Race Theory and inquiry pedagogy Inquiry Design Model to teach about race in the social science disciplines
