New Zealand Landscapes:

New Zealand Landscape Paul Williams, 2017-05-18 New Zealand Landscape Behind the Scene tells the story of New Zealand through the subject of geomorphology a branch of earth science at the interface of geology and geography Geomorphology is informally described as the science of scenery and as with every science ideas evolve as the research frontier advances Users will find an early 21st century interpretation of the New Zealand landscape an interpretation that rests on and draws from a rich foundation of ideas bequeathed by predecessors who have had the privilege of exploring researching and enjoying this corner of the Pacific Tells a geological and geographical story with questions that are addressed and answered in the course of the book Written in an accessible style for both researchers and students Features full color photos of the beautiful New Zealand landscape New Zealand Untouched Landscapes Petr Hlaváček, 2016-10 New Zealand Untouched Landscapes is a fresh and strikingly beautiful collection of landscape photographs that have been captured throughout the country by professional photographer Petr Hlavacek From our most iconic locations to harder to access and protected areas New Zealand Untouched Landscapes presents the pristine and diverse landscapes of this country often from a new perspective Petr's photography is motivated by the opportunity to promote greater public awareness of our fragile landscapes a landscape he is passionate about protecting Petr Hlavacek is an important new talent among New Zealand landscape photographers The Modern Landscapes of Ted Smyth Rod Barnett, Jacqueline Margetts, 2017-01-06 The modern period in landscape architecture is enjoying the fascinated appreciation of scholars and historians in Europe and the Americas and new themes new subjects and new appraisals are appearing This book contributes to the conversation by focusing on the work of a singular designer who spent his entire career in a province of the North Island of New Zealand Ted Smyth practiced an assured landscape modernism without ever seeing the designs of his forebears or his contemporaries working in the UK Europe and the United States Designing in isolation from the mainstream of modernism and a little after its high tide Smyth produced a series of gardens that provoke a revaluation of the diffusionist model of influence The book explains and describes the evolution of Smyth's design vocabulary and relates it to the development of tropical landscape modernism in other Asia Pacific sites It shows how a culture of garden modernism can be generated from within a particular locale and highlights Smyth's engagement with Māori design traditions in search of a specific expression of the high modern essentialism of place Landscape and Power, Second Edition William John Thomas Mitchell, W. J. T. Mitchell, 2002-04-15 This text considers landscape not simply as an object to be seen or a text to be read but as an instrument of cultural force a central tool in the creation of national and social identities This edition adds a new preface and five new essays New Zealand Painting Michael Dunn, 2003 Completely revised and updated Chapters have been rewritten Also added in a substantial new chapter on contemporary Māori and Pacific Island painting as well as an acknowledgement of the coming wave of Asian artists Foot-tracks in New Zealand Pete McDonald, 2011-08-11 Foot tracks in New Zealand examines the

Special Meeting, 2001 Routledge Handbook of Landscape Character Assessment Graham Fairclough, Ingrid Sarlöv Herlin, Carys Swanwick, 2018-05-11 In this multi authored book senior practitioners and researchers offer an international overview of landscape character approaches for those working in research policy and practice relating to landscape Over the last three decades European practice in landscape has moved from a narrow if relatively straightforward focus on natural beauty or scenery to a much broader concept of landscape character constructed through human perception and transcending any of its individual elements Methods tools and techniques have been developed to give practical meaning to this idea of landscape character The two main methods Landscape Character Assessment LCA and Historic Landscape Characterisation HLC were applied first in the United Kingdom but other methods are in use elsewhere in Europe and beyond to achieve similar ends This book explores why different approaches exist the extent to which disciplinary or cultural specificities in different countries affect approaches to land management and landscape planning and highlights areas for reciprocal learning and knowledge transfer Contributors to the book focus on examples of European countries such as Sweden Turkey and Portugal that have adopted and extended UK style landscape characterisation but also on countries with their own distinctive approaches that have developed from different conceptual roots as in Germany France and the Netherlands The collection is completed by chapters looking at landscape approaches based on non European concepts of landscape in North America Australia and New Zealand This book has an introductory price of 125 205 which will last until 3 months after publication after this time it will revert to 140 225 Landscape and Branding Nicole Porter, 2015-10-05 Landscape and branding explores the way landscape is conceptualised conceived represented and designed by professionals in a brand driven age Landscape incorporating tangible physical space as well as intangible concepts narratives images and experiences of place is constructed by a number of creative industries This book tests the hypothesis that place branding a powerful marketing and management practice increasingly blurs the distinction between the promotion of landscape and its production in design terms Place branding involves the strategic and systematic composition of single minded experiential and market friendly place identities which are consistently communicated across various media including physical space How does this implicate or transform notions of place nature landscape experience and the qualitative value of landscape itself How does this affect the role of landscape architecture To answer these questions place branding theory and practice is critically examined alongside an in depth case study of one specific landscape the Blue Mountains Australia Projects undertaken between 1995 and 2015 including a branding strategy for the region media campaigns television cinema and several landscape architectural works in the public and private domain are comparatively analysed focusing on the discourse conventions and values informing their production and the landscape narratives they convey Architectural Conservation in Australia, New Zealand and the Pacific Islands John Stubbs, William

Chapman, Julia Gatley, Ross King, 2023-12-22 The fourth in a series that documents architectural conservation in different parts of the world Architectural Conservation in Australia New Zealand and the Pacific Islands National Experiences and Practice addresses cultural heritage protection in a region which comprises one third of the Earth's surface In response to local needs Australia New Zealand and the Pacific Islands have developed some of the most important and influential techniques legislation doctrine and theories in cultural heritage management in the world The evolution of the heritage protection ethos and contemporary architectural conservation practices in Australia and Oceania are discussed on a national and regional basis using ample illustrations and examples Accomplishments in architectural conservation are discussed in their national and international contexts with an emphasis on original developments solutions and contributions made to the overall field Enriched with essays contributed from fifty nine specialists and thought leaders in the field this book contains an extraordinary breadth and depth of research and synthesis on the why's and how's of cultural heritage conservation Its holistic approach provides an essential resource and reference for students academics researchers policy makers practitioners and all who are interested in conserving the built environment The Rough Guide to New Zealand Laura

Harper, Tony Mudd, Paul Whitfield, 2002 Combining the most extraordinary aspects of both wild and cosmopolitan New Zealand this Rough Guide offers unparalleled coverage of activities and accommodations of color photos 80 maps The Routledge Handbook of Cultural Landscape Heritage in The Asia-Pacific Kapila D. Silva, Ken Taylor, David S. Jones, 2022-07-29 The Routledge Handbook of Cultural Landscape Heritage in the Asia Pacific revisits the use growth and potential of the cultural landscape methodology in the conservation and management of culture nature heritage in the Asia Pacific region Taking both a retrospective and prospective view of the management of cultural heritage in the region this volume argues that the plurality and complexity of heritage in the region cannot be comprehensively understood and effectively managed without a broader conceptual framework like the cultural landscape approach The book also demonstrates that such an approach facilitates the development of a flexible strategy for heritage conservation Acknowledging the effects of rapid socio economic development globalization and climate change contributors examine the pressure these issues place on the sustenance of cultural heritage Including chapters from more than 20 countries across the Asia Pacific region the volume reviews the effectiveness of theoretical and practical potentials afforded by the cultural landscape approach and examines how they have been utilized in the Asia Pacific context for the last three decades The Routledge Handbook of Cultural Landscape Heritage in the Asia Pacific provides a comprehensive analysis of the processes of cultural landscape heritage conservation and management As a result it will be of interest to academics students and professionals who are based in the fields of cultural heritage management architecture urban planning landscape architecture and landscape management

Linking Australia's Landscapes James Fitzsimons, Ian Pulsford, Geoff Wescott, 2013-06-05 Networks of land managed for conservation across different tenures have rapidly increased in number and popularity in Australia over the past two decades

These include iconic large scale initiatives such as Gondwana Link the Great Eastern Ranges Initiative Habitat 141 and the South Australian NatureLinks as well as other landscape scale approaches such as Biosphere Reserves and Conservation Management Networks Their aims have been multiple to protect the integrity and resilience of many Australian ecosystems by maintaining and restoring large scale natural landscapes and ecosystem processes to lessen the impacts of fragmentation to increase the connectivity of habitats to provide for species movement and adaptation as climate changes and to build community support and involvement in conservation This book draws out lessons from a variety of established and new connectivity conservation initiatives from around Australia and is complemented by international examples Chapters are written by leaders in the field of establishing and operating connectivity networks as well as key ecological and social scientists and experts in governance Linking Australia's Landscapes will be an important reference for policy makers natural resource managers scientists and academics and tertiary students dealing with issues in landscape scale conservation ecology conservation biology environmental policy planning and management social sciences regional development governance and ecosystem services

Global Iconoclasm: Contesting "Official" Mnemonic Landscapes Michael Ripmeester, Matthew W. Rofe, 2024-06-24 Geographers and others have been long aware that landscapes are neither natural or neutral This is particularly true of landscapes of memory Powerful groups inscribe such landscapes with both a preferred vision of the past and with sets of idealized societal values and morays Yet and despite the authoritative weight such landscapes carry they can be challenged Even before the monument topplings of 2020 groups across the globe were challenging official memory discourses This volume offers case studies of what might be considered global iconoclasm Drawing upon original international case studies this monograph critically engages with and reveals the dynamics of landscape contestation From the Tsunami Museum of Banda Aceh to the echoes of Mussolini's Fascist Italy by way of the decolonization of sites in Australia New Zealand Colombia and Africa the processes of landscape contestation are innovatively teased out by established and newly emerging scholars This book should be of interest to any scholar interested in the politics of mnemonic landscapes
