Identity and Diversity on the International Bench Freya Baetens, 2020-12-10 International courts and tribunals hold the power to decide on questions involving sovereignty over territory grave human rights violations international crimes or millions of euros worth of economic interests Judges and arbitrators are the faces and arguably the drivers of international adjudication Yet certain groups tend to be overrepresented on international benches while others remain underrepresented Although international courts and tribunals differ in their institutional make up and functions they all rely in essence on the judgement of a group of individuals each with their own background and experience Even if adjudicators identity is not the only and may not be the decisive influence on their decision making the relative lack of diversity has an effect on the judicial process and its outcomes which in turn entails broader implications for the legitimacy of international law This book analyses the implications of identity and diversity across numerous international adjudicatory bodies focusing on a wide range of factors Lack of diversity within the judiciary has been identified as a legitimacy concern in domestic settings and the last few years have seen increasing attention to this question at the international level as well making the book both timely and topical

African Governance, Security, and Development Wanjala S. Nasong'o, 2021-08-10 African Governance Security and Development explores the political economy of development in Africa The contributors examine the impact and implications of the democratization process in Africa with particular focus on issues of economic social and institutional development Through a variety of critical perspectives and disciplines contributors analyze topics such as the impact of democratization on governance and institutional development foreign aid and foreign direct investment terrorism in Africa identity politics and the politics of oil extraction African Governance Security and Development features the voices of scholars from institutions of higher learning in Africa and showcases case studies from the continent bringing much needed African and Africanist perspectives to current discussions about African political development and economy

International Courts and the African Woman Judge Josephine Jarpa Dawuni, Hon. Akua Kuenyehia, 2017-11-28 A sequel to Bauer and Dawuni's pioneering study on gender and the judiciary in Africa Routledge 2016 International Courts and the African Woman Judge examines questions on gender diversity representative benches and international courts by focusing on women judges from the continent of Africa Drawing from postcolonial feminism feminist institutionalism feminist legal theory and legal narratives this book provides fresh and detailed narratives of seven women judges that challenge existing discourse on gender diversity in international courts It answers important questions about how the politics of judicial appointments gender geographic location class and professional capital combine to shape the lives of women judges who sit on international courts and argues the need to disaggregate gender diversity with a view to understanding intra group differences International Courts and the African Woman Judge will be of interest to a variety of audiences including governments policy makers civil society organizations students of gender studies and feminist activists interested in all questions of gender and judging

Goliath's Reckoning: Unveiling the Biassed Truth Behind Children's Court that discriminates against Fathers Salatiso,2024-06-10 Discover a Father s Courageous Fight Against a Biased Legal System and the Struggle for True Equality In Goliath s Reckoning Unveiling the Biassed Truth Behind Children s Court embark on a profound journey through the complexities of South Africa s family courts where one father s unwavering determination to protect his son becomes a powerful stand against state sanctioned gender discrimination This compelling narrative not only explores the personal sacrifices and legal battles faced by fathers but also serves as a comprehensive guide for navigating a system that often seems rigged against them Key Highlights A Personal Battle Follow the author s deeply personal story as he confronts a legal system that favors mothers and marginalizes fathers threatening the best interests of children Inspired by his own experiences and those of other fathers the author reveals the immense strength required to challenge deeply entrenched biases Legal Strategies and Practical Insights Gain valuable insights and practical strategies for self represented litigants fighting for their parental rights This book offers a roadmap for navigating the complexities of family law empowering parents to advocate effectively for their children Equality Before the Law Explore the critical principle of equality before the law a cornerstone of justice that empowers every citizen regardless of their background or social standing to hold the government and its institutions accountable Learn how state sanctioned discrimination whether based on gender or race undermines this principle and threatens the future of South Africa s children A Call to Action Goliath s Reckoning is more than a memoir it is a call to action for all those who have felt powerless against a biased system The author challenges readers to stand up for what is right using the power of personal agency and the guiding light of the Constitution to create a fair and just society Why This Book Matters In a world where justice and equality are often compromised by well intentioned but flawed redress policies this book shines a light on the urgent need for reform The author argues that true equality before the law must be restored to protect the best interests of the child and ensure that every parent including fathers has the opportunity to play an active and nurturing role in their child s life Who Should Read This Book Fathers and Parents Seeking to understand their rights and navigate the family court system Legal Professionals Interested in the impact of gender biases in family law Social Justice Advocates Committed to fighting all forms of state sanctioned discrimination Readers Who believe in the power of individual agency and the importance of equality before the law

Gender and Careers in the Legal Academy Ulrike Schultz,Gisela Shaw,Margaret Thornton,Rosemary Auchmuty,2021-02-25 In the past fifteen years there has been a marked increase in the international scholarship relating to women in law The lives and careers of women in legal practice and the judiciary have been extensively documented and critiqued but the central conundrum remains Does the presence of women make a difference What has been largely overlooked in the literature is the position of women in the legal academy although central to the changing culture To remedy the oversight an international network of scholars embarked on a comparative study which resulted in this path breaking book The contributors uncover fascinating accounts of the careers of the academic pioneers as well as exploring broader theoretical issues relating to gender and culture The provocative question as to whether the presence of women makes a difference informs each contribution Intersectionality and Women's Access to Justice in Africa J. Jarpa Dawuni, 2022-10-17 Intersectionality and Women's Access to Justice edited by J Jarpa Dawuni propounds layered intersectionality as a paradigm for examining how gendered factors affect women's access to justice whether as judges or litigants Through intersectional and decolonial frameworks the contributors analyze the lived experiences of women and their access to justice by situating the courtroom as both a spatial and a temporal arena for seeking justice as litigants and for seeking access to the bench as judges This book examines patterns of mutually reinforcing discriminatory practices that women share based on common gender identities and depending on which identities are at play at a given point in time in both traditional and statutory courts The book provides recommendations for various justice sector providers The Oxford Handbook of Nigerian Politics A. Carl LeVan, Patrick Ukata, 2018-10-18 The Oxford Handbook of Nigerian Politics offers a comprehensive analysis of Nigeria's very rich history and ever changing politics to its readers It provides a deep understanding of Nigeria's socio political evolution and experience by covering broad range of political issues and historical eras The volume encompasses 44 chapters organized thematically into essays covering history political institutions civil society economic and social policy identity and insecurity and Nigeria in a globalized world By identifying many of the classic debates in Nigerian politics the chapters serve as an authoritative introduction to Africa's most populous country The chapters are interdisciplinary introducing readers to classic debates and key research on Nigeria as well as new methodologies new data and a compelling corpus of research questions for the next generation of researchers and readers interested in Africa Reimagining the Judiciary Maria C. Escobar-Lemmon, Valerie J. Hoekstra, Alice J. Kang, Miki Caul Kittilson, 2022-01-13 This book examines the factors that facilitate the inclusion of women on high courts while recognizing that many courts have a long way to go before reaching gender parity Why did women start appearing on high courts when they did Where have women made the most significant strides To address these questions the authors built the first cross national and longitudinal dataset on the appointment of women and men to high courts In addition they provide five in depth country case studies us to unpack the selection of justices to high courts in Canada Colombia Ireland South Africa and the United States The cross national lens and combination of quantitative analyses and detailed country studies examines multiple influences across region and time Focusing on three sets of explanations pipelines to high courts domestic institutions and international influences analyses reveal that women are more likely to first appear on their country's high court when traditional ideas about who can and should be a judge erode In some countries international treaties regional emulation and women's international NGOs play a role in disseminating and linking global norms of gender equality in decision making Importantly while informal institutions and reliance on men dominated networks can limit access women are making substantial strides in their countries highest courts where the supply grows and often where selectors have incentives to select women Further sustained pressure from advocacy organizations at the local national and global levels contributes to some gains Comparative Politics is a series for researchers teachers and students of political science that deals with contemporary government and politics Global in scope books in the series are characterized by a stress on comparative analysis and strong methodological rigour The series is published in association with the European Consortium for Political Research For more information visit www.ecprnet.eu The series is edited by Susan Scarrow John and Rebecca Moores Professor of Political Science at the University of Houston and Jonathan Slapin Professor of Political Institutions and European Politics Department of Political Science University of Zurich
