Ritual Healing in the Zion Christian Church in South Africa Mookgo Solomon Kgatle,2025-10-16 This book signifies a distinct separation of the ritual healing process in the Zion Christian Church from traditional African medicine while also attempting to synthesize contemporary medical approaches with indigenous knowledge systems The Zion Christian Church is recognized for its distinctive amalgamation of religious activities which include faith healing prophecy and significant pilgrimages particularly the Easter pilgrimage to Moria Despite the church s emphasis on the Christian identity within its faith healing practices some observers interpret various rituals and beliefs as syncretic Consequently these readings have led to allegations that the church integrates aspects of African traditional medicine and witchcraft into its rituals This book utilizes the church as a case study to examine healing faith practices and rituals thereof within the larger framework and context of African Independent Churches This theology is used to help place the faith of patients and the importance of God s role as healer ahead of the healing rituals Its unique theme driven interconnected chapters contain discussions around various practices encompassing purification and protection rituals as well as therapeutic worship Consequently scholars in religious studies theology anthropology and history will find this book an important resource in understanding the role of healing rituals among African Independent Churches

W. E. B. Du Bois' Africa Taharka Ade,2023-08-15 W E B Du Bois was one of the leading figures of Pan African thought and activism in the twentieth century As a sociologist Du Bois wrote much about the historical and social circumstances of African Americans while often acknowledging the African historical background of much of African American or Negro culture In 1946 Du Bois published The World and Africa which was a culmination of previous attempts at penning a narrative of African history beginning with his 1915 publication The Negro in which he included the social historical experience of African Americans within the continuity of African history This book delivers for the first time a comprehensive Afrocentric investigation and critique of Du Bois s writings on African history It argues that while Du Bois presented at the time a strong critique of the Eurocentric construction of African history many of Du Bois s descriptions and arguments about African people and history were likewise flawed with interpretations that projected the cultural subjectivities of Europe Further while Du Bois rightfully presents the historical relationship between African Americans and Africa as a justification for Pan African activism this book contends that Du Bois s failure to center African culture instead of race leads to superficial justifications for Pan African unity
