Borderlands in European Gender Studies Teresa Kulawik,Zhanna Kravchenko,2019-10-23 Challenging persistent geopolitical asymmetries in feminist knowledge production this collection depicts collisions between concepts and lived experiences between academic feminism and political activism between the West as generalizable and the East as the concrete Other Borderlands in European Gender Studies narrows the gap between cultural analysis and social theory addressing feminist theory's epistemological foundations and its capacity to confront the legacies of colonialism and socialism The contributions demonstrate the enduring worth of feminist concepts for critical analysis conceptualize resistance to multiple forms of oppression and identify the implications of the decoupling of cultural and social feminist critique for the analysis of gender relations in a postsocialist space This book will be of import to activists and researchers in women's and gender studies comparative gender politics and policy political science sociology contemporary history and European studies It is suitable for use as a supplemental text for advanced undergraduate and graduate courses in a range of fields

Gender Parity and Multicultural Feminism Ruth Rubio-Marín,Will Kymlicka,2018-09-25 Around the world we see a participatory turn in the pursuit of gender equality exemplified by the adoption of gender quotas in national legislatures to promote women's role as decision makers We also see a pluralism turn with increasing legal recognition given to the customary law or religious law of minority groups and indigenous peoples To date the former trend has primarily benefitted majority women and the latter has primarily benefitted minority men Neither has effectively ensured the participation of minority women In response multicultural feminists have proposed institutional innovations to strengthen the voice of minority women both at the state level and in decisions about the interpretation and evolution of cultural and religious practices This volume explores the connection between gender parity and multicultural feminism both at the level of theory and in practice The authors explore a range of cases from Europe Latin America the Middle East and Africa in relation to state law customary law religious law and indigenous law While many obstacles remain and many women continue to suffer from the paradox of multicultural vulnerability these innovations in theory and practice offer new prospects for reconciling gender equality and pluralism

Promoting Gender Equality Abroad Thomas Kruessmann,Anita Ziegerhofer,2017 The EU likes to be seen as a normative actor engaged in diffusing the norms and values enshrined in the Lisbon Treaty This book focuses on gender equality as one of these values It shows that the EU in implementing the mandate to promote gender equality abroad is acting under distinctly separate sets of logic in the various policy fields and vis vis different stakeholders The same normative commitment to gender equality when filtered through the particular logic of the various policy fields leads to different types of external action with rather different outcomes Series Gender Discussion Gender Diskussion Vol 24 pSubject European Studies Gender Studies Sociology Public Policy Politics

American Higher Education in a Global Context Cristina González,2022-02-14 American Higher Education in a Global Context Historical Perspectives describes the current state of universities on each continent providing a comprehensive analysis of the numerous factors that have affected higher education systems around the world This book studies higher education from its emergence in antiquity to the establishment of the American research university model and its adoption around the globe through the current Covid 19 pandemic and concomitant economic and political crisis The author pays special attention to the shortcomings of the neoliberal trend of the last four decades which increased social stratification at institutions of higher learning Calling for an expansion of access to tertiary education and in particular to research universities this book examines the competition between China and the United States in the field of higher education stressing the importance of academic freedom without which there can be no true academic excellence

Negotiating Gender Equity in the Global South Sohela Nazneen, Sam Hickey, Eleni Sifaki, 2019-03-04 The Open Access version of this book available at <https://doi.org/10.4324/9781351245623> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license The fact that women have achieved higher levels of political inclusion within low and middle income countries has generated much speculation about whether this is reaping broader benefits in tackling gender based inequalities This book uncovers the multiple political dynamics that influence governments to adopt and implement gender equity policies pushing the debate beyond simply the role of women's inclusion in influencing policy Bringing the politics of development into discussion with feminist literature on women's empowerment the book proposes the new concept of power domains as a way to capture how inter elite bargaining coalitional politics and social movement activism combine to shape policies that promote gender equity In particular the book investigates the conditions under which countries in sub Saharan Africa and South Asia have adopted legislation against domestic violence which remains widespread in many developing countries The book demonstrates that women's presence in formal politics and policy spaces does not fully explain the pace in adopting and implementing domestic violence law Underlying drivers of change within broader domains of power also include the role of clientelistic politics and informal processes of bargaining coalition building and persuasion the discursive framing of gender equitable ideas and how transnational norms influence women's political inclusion and gender inclusive policy outcomes The comparative approach across Uganda Rwanda South Africa Ghana India and Bangladesh demonstrates how advancing gender equality varies by political context and according to the interests surrounding a particular issue Negotiating Gender Equity in the Global South will be of interest to students and scholars of gender and development as well as to activists within governments political parties nongovernmental organizations women's movements and donor agencies at national and international levels who are looking to develop effective strategies for advancing gender equality

Women and Political Inequality in Japan Mikiko Eto, 2020-12-17 Why are there so few Japanese women involved in the political system In 2019 Japanese women made up 10% of the national Lower House 21% of the Upper House and 14% of local assemblies According to the Inter Parliamentary Union this places Japan 164th out of 193 countries when it comes to women's representation in the legislature The percentage of women in the Lower House has only increased by fewer than two percentage points since women gained full suffrage and the right to stand for election in Japan in 1946 Eto analyses the various factors that have led to women's low presence in the Japanese legislature She evaluates ways in which it might be possible for Japan to catch up and in doing so examines how Japanese society continues to perpetuate gender rigid expectations of people This text is a valuable study for scholars of Japanese politics and society and for readers with an interest in the broader issue of the representation of women in politics

Pakistan's Political Parties Mariam Mufti, Sahar Shafqat, Niloufer Siddiqui, 2020-05-01 Pakistan's 2018 general elections marked the second successful transfer of power from one elected civilian government to another a remarkable achievement considering the country's history of dictatorial rule Pakistan's Political Parties examines how the civilian side of the state's current regime has survived the transition to democracy providing critical insight into the evolution of political parties in Pakistan and their role in developing democracies in general Pakistan's numerous political parties span the ideological spectrum as well as represent diverse regional ethnic and religious constituencies The essays in this volume explore the way in which these parties both contend and work with Pakistan's military bureaucratic establishment to assert and expand their power Researchers use interviews surveys data and ethnography to illuminate the internal dynamics and motivations of these groups and the mechanisms through which they create policy and influence state and society Pakistan's Political Parties is a one of a kind resource for diplomats policymakers journalists and scholars searching for a comprehensive overview of Pakistan's party system and its unlikely survival against an interventionist military with insights that extend far beyond the region
