Nice Not Yet Twilight Autobiography 1945 1964:

Josef Pieper on the Spiritual Life Nathaniel A. Warne, 2023-03-15 Warne's original study provides an insightful analysis of the role of contemplation and creation in the thought of Josef Pieper illustrating the importance of this practice to earthly happiness and human flourishing What is the relationship between creation contemplation human flourishing and moral development Nathaniel Warne's Josef Pieper on the Spiritual Life offers a sophisticated answer to this question through a systematic analysis of philosopher Josef Pieper's 1904-1997 thought Warne's examination centers on the role of contemplation and creation in Pieper's thinking arguing that contemplation of the created order is a key feature of earthly happiness By emphasizing the importance of contemplation Pieper illustrates the deep interconnections between ethics creation and spirituality For Warne to posit a binary between the contemplative life and active life creates a false dichotomy Following Pieper Warne claims that theology and spirituality cannot be bracketed from ethics and social action indeed our lived experience in the world blurs the lines between these practices Contemplation and action are closer together than are typically assumed and they have important implications for both our spiritual development and our engagement with the world around us Ultimately Warne's emphasis on creation and contemplation represents an attempt to resist a view of ethics and the spiritual life that is divorced from our environment In response to this view Warne argues that we need a renewed sense that creation and place are important for self understanding Contemplation of creation is fundamentally a form of communion with God we thus need a more robust sense of how ethics and politics are rooted in God's creative action Taking Pieper as a guide Warne's study helps to deepen our thinking about these connections Twilight War Mike

Moore, 2008-03-03 Considering the historical background of space militarization and providing an overview of the United States efforts to militarily dominate space since the dawn of the space age this book argues that America must either ensure that space related weapons are verifiably banned for all nations through an international treaty or definitively choose a policy of unilateral space dominance that may lead to an arms race in space and possibly to another cold war The 1967 Outer Space Treaty designated space as the province of all mankind It expressly prohibited nuclear and non nuclear weapons of mass destruction in orbital space and exclusively limited the use of the Moon and other celestial bodies for peaceful purposes But changes in the post Cold War world as well as unforeseeable advances in satellite and weapons technologies have compelled every space faring nation save the U S and Israel to go on record as favoring a new treaty for the Prevention of an Arms Race in Outer Space In Twilight War The Folly of U S Space Dominance Mike Moore former editor of The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists argues that the U S merely provokes conflict when it presumes to be the exception to the rule Rejecting treaty negotiations while further militarizing space renders America unable to lead by example Moore concludes that instead of trying to stop an arms race in space by starting one the U S must radically rethink its strategy American Autobiography, 1945-1980 Mary Louise Briscoe, 1982 This bibliography provides access to over 5 000 American autobiographies published in
