The Gender Politics of Contemporary Performance in Northern Ireland Alexander Coupe, 2024-12-07 This book examines theatre and performance produced since the 1998 Belfast Good Friday Agreement in the context of growing discontent with the failure of the peace in Northern Ireland to deliver genuinely transformative forms of social justice The economic expansion that attended the peace accord propelled the growth of the region s theatre and performance sector and assisted in increasing the representation of women and LGBTQ people across the arts Despite this much of the performance work produced since 1998 has illuminated the darker social consequences of Northern Ireland s embrace of a specifically neoliberal vision of a post conflict society Existing scholarship has already highlighted the role of theatre and performance in drawing attention to the misogyny and homophobia that has underwritten political antagonism in the North since partition Instead this book offers a sustained examination of contemporary performance makers that have engaged specifically with the reconstruction of gender norms amidst the region s political and economic transformation The story it tells is of an emerging current in theatre performance art and dance consisting of work concerned not only with uncovering the morbid symptoms of the neoliberal peace but also embodying those messy and everyday conditions of co dependency vulnerability and solidarity that both patriarchal nationalisms and androcentric individualism seek to deny Queering W. B. Yeats and Gabriele D'Annunzio Zsuzsanna Balázs, 2023-11-22 Queering W B Yeats and Gabriele D Annunzio Modernist Playwrights challenges the general resistance in scholarship and queer studies to approach Yeats and D Annunzio through a queer lens because of their controversial affiliations with fascism and elitism their heterosexuality and their venerated canonical status This book provides the first fully theorised queer and comparative reading of Yeats s and D Annunzio s drama It offers the novel contention that due to their increasing involvement in queer and feminist subcultures their plays feature feelings that are associated with queer historiography and generate ideas that began to be theorised by queer studies more than half a century after the composition of the plays Moreover it uncovers an alert subversive and often coded social commentary in eight key dramatic texts by each playwright and at the same time highlights the thus far neglected commonalities between the plays and the queer historical as well as cultural contexts of these two prominent modernists The Golden Thread David Clare, Fiona McDonagh, Justine Nakase, 2021-07-01 Sold as a multi volume set the individual volumes are also available for purchase This two volume edited collection illuminates the valuable counter canon of Irish women s playwriting with forty two essays written by leading and emerging Irish theatre scholars and practitioners Covering three hundred years of Irish theatre history from 1716 to 2016 it is the most comprehensive study of plays written by Irish women to date These short essays provide both a valuable introduction and innovative analysis of key playtexts bringing renewed attention to scripts and writers that continue to be under represented in theatre criticism and performance Volume Two contains chapters focused on plays by sixteen Irish women playwrights produced between 1992 and 2016 highlighting the explosion of new work by contemporary writers The plays in this volume explore women s experiences at the intersections of class sexuality disability and ethnicity pushing at the boundaries of how we define not only Irish theatre but Irish identity more broadly CONTRIBUTORS Nelson Barre Mary Burke David Clare Shonagh Hill M ria Kurdi Jos Lanters Fiona McDonagh Dorothy Morrissey Justine Nakase Brian Conchubhair Brenda O Connell Shane O Neill Graham Price Siobh n Purcell Carole Quigley Sarah Jane Scaife Melissa Sihra Clare Wallace

Women Experimenting in Theatre Kate Aughterson, Deborah Philips, 2024-11-14 This collection of essays covering a broad historical range shows that women working in theatre and drama since the time of Aphra Behn have been engaged in pushing the boundaries of conventional representation and dramaturgical convention Collectively the authors show that women have used performing spaces as a channel for both political and personal radicalism one that has demanded and celebrated experimentalism as a kind of survival in a male dominated world

The Palgrave Handbook of Queer and Trans Feminisms in Contemporary Performance Tiina Rosenberg, Sandra D'Urso, Anna Renée Winget, 2021-09-21 The purpose of this Handbook is to provide students with an overview of key developments in queer and trans feminist theories and their significance to the field of contemporary performance studies It presents new insights highlighting the ways in which rigid or punishing notions of gender sexuality and race continue to flourish in systems of knowledge faith and power which are relevant to a new generation of queer and trans feminist performers today The guiding question for the Handbook is How do queer and trans feminist theories enhance our understanding of developments in feminist performance today and will this discussion give rise to new ways of theorizing contemporary performance As such the volume will survey a new generation of performers and theorists as well as senior scholars who engage and redefine the limits of performance The chapters will demonstrate how intersectional queer and trans feminist theoretical tools support new analyses of performance with a global focus The primary audience will be students of theatre performance studies as well as queer gender studies The volume s contents suggest close links between the formation of queer feminist identities alongside recent key political developments with transnational resonances Furthermore the emergence of new queer and trans feminist epistemologies prompts a reorientation regarding performance and identities in a 21st century context

Writing Queer Performance Le Gateau Chocolat, Dickie Beau, Ray Young, Bourgeois & Maurice, Sh!t Theatre, Rosana Cade, Ivor MacAskill, David Hoyle, Vijay Patel, 2024-12-26 This anthology documents a decade of some of the UK s most exciting queer performance through a combination of retrospective scripts development material and visual documentation Queer performance is expected to live a brief bright life without leaving any textual record Indeed it rarely begins with a complete script at all being often developed instead by performance practices designed to fill noisy bars clinking cabaret venues and fringe theatres typically for short runs This lack of textual documentation underplays the importance of writing to contemporary queer performance while rendering it vulnerable to disappearance in the diaphanous archives of memory Writing Queer Performance Contemporary Texts and Documents features eight seminal works captured through performance texts and visual documentation that ensures their accessibility long after the event of live performance Supported by a contextualizing introduction the anthology provides a panoramic view of contemporary preoccupations processes and practices
