Installation and the Moving Image Catherine Elwes, 2015-05-12 Film and video create an illusory world a reality elsewhere and a material presence that both dramatizes and demystifies the magic trick of moving pictures Beginning in the 1960s artists have explored filmic and televisual phenomena in the controlled environments of galleries and museums drawing on multiple antecedents in cinema television and the visual arts This volume traces the lineage of moving image installation through architecture painting sculpture performance expanded cinema film history and countercultural film and video from the 1960s 1970s and 1980s Sound is given due attention along with the shift from analogue to digital issues of spectatorship and the insights of cognitive science Woven into this genealogy is a discussion of the procedural political theoretical and ideological positions espoused by artists from the mid twentieth century to the present Historical constructs such as Peter Gidal's structural materialism Maya Deren's notion of vertical and horizontal time and identity politics are reconsidered in a contemporary context and intersect with more recent thinking on representation subjectivity and installation art The book is written by a critic curator and practitioner who was a pioneer of British video and feminist art politics in the late 1970s Elwes writes engagingly of her encounters with works by Anthony McCall Gillian Wearing David

Hall and Janet Cardiff and her narrative is informed by exchanges with other practitioners While the book addresses the key formal theoretical and historical parameters of moving image installation it ends with a question What s in it for the artist
