Fortunes of German Writers in America Wolfgang Iff, James N. Hardin, Günther Holst, 1992 Serving Library Users from Asia John Hickok, 2019-06-12 Asian populations are among some of the fastest growing cultural groups in the US. While books on serving other target groups in libraries have been published (e.g., disabled, Latino, seniors, etc.), few books on serving library users of Asian heritage have been written. Thus, the timely need for this book. Rather than a generalized overview of Asians as a whole, this book has 24 separate chapters, each on 24 specific Asian countries, cultures of East, Southeast, and South Asia, with a wealth of resources for understanding, interacting with, and serving library users of each culture. Resources include cultural guides, both print and online; language helps with sample library vocabulary; Asian booksellers; nationwide cultural groups; professional literature; and more. Resources and suggestions are given for all three types of libraries: public, school, and academic, making this book valuable for all librarians. The demographics of each Asian culture, numbers, and distribution, plus history of immigration and international student enrollment, is also featured. As a bonus, each chapter spotlights a US public school and academic library providing model outreach to Asian library users. Additionally, this book provides a detailed description and analysis of libraries in each of the 24 Asian countries. The history, development, facilities, conditions, technology, classification systems, and more of public school and academic libraries are all discussed with detailed documentation Country conditions influencing libraries and library use are also described literacy levels reading cultures languages and writing systems educational systems and more Based on the author s 15 years of research and travels to Asia this work is a must have for all librarians The Wall Street Journal ,2006 A Novel Christmas Charity Shane,2024-09-24 A prominent romance author has a slump in her love life and book sales but a chance encounter with a hot firefighter helps her reignite her muse in this swoony holiday romance perfect for book romantics Saira Wright is a prominent Black romance author who has been signed to the most prestigious publisher of African American works Brownstone Literature Her career has been successful for the past five years However she s in a slump and so are her sales and reviews The romance she has been known for seems to be zapped out of her stories and her love life Eager to get Saira back on top of the charts her publisher has given her an ultimatum write a chart topping holiday romance or be dropped from the publishing house There s only one problem Saira strongly opposes penning holiday books To her they are cliché and off brand but with her career on the line she s forced to give it a shot To capture the spirit of the holidays she books a vacation in the most Christmassy town she can find Sharing the other side of her rented duplex is the owner Dorian Black a volunteer firefighter and the town s little league football coach He s also Mr December in the firefighter s annual fundraising calendar and every woman s dream Years ago Dorian was happily married to the love of his life until cancer took her away from him Still coping with the loss a romantic relationship is the furthest thing from his mind However when he encounters his new tenant for the holiday sparks fly and a fire is ignited that not even he can extinguish As the two navigate through various encounters holiday festivities and a snowstorm will the magic of Christmas help them rediscover a long awaited connection
