Public Religion and the Politics of Homosexuality in Africa Adriaan van Klinken, Ezra Chitando, 2016-04-14 Issues of same sex relationships and gay and lesbian rights are the subject of public and political controversy in many African societies today. Frequently these controversies receive widespread attention both locally and globally such as with the Anti Homosexuality Bill in Uganda. In the international media these cases tend to be presented as revealing a deeply rooted homophobia in Africa fuelled by religious and cultural traditions. But so far little energy is expended in understanding these controversies in all their complexity and the critical role religion plays in them. This is the first book with multidisciplinary perspectives on religion and homosexuality in Africa. It presents case studies from across the continent from Egypt to Zimbabwe and from Senegal to Kenya and covers religious traditions such as Islam, Christianity and Rastafarianism. The contributors explore the role of religion in the politicisation of homosexuality, investigate local and global mobilisations of power, critically examine dominant religious discourses and highlight the emergence of counter discourses. Hence they reveal the crucial yet ambivalent public role of religion in matters of sexuality, social justice and human rights in contemporary Africa.

Shi'a Minorities in the Contemporary World Scharbrodt Oliver

Scharbrodt, 2020-06-18. Global migrations flows in the 20th century have seen the emergence of Muslim diaspora and minority communities in Europe, North America and other parts of the world. While there is a growing body of research on Muslim minorities in various regional contexts, the particular experiences of Shi'a Muslim minorities across the globe have only received scant attention. This book offers new comparative perspectives of Shi'a minorities outside of the so-called Muslim heartland: the Middle East, North Africa, Central and South Asia. It includes contributions on Shi'a minority communities in Europe, North and South America, Sub-Saharan Africa and East Asia that emerged out of migration from the Middle East and South Asia in the 20th and 21st centuries, in particular. As a minority within a minority, Shi'a Muslims face the double challenge of maintaining an Islamic as well as a particular Shi'a identity in terms of communal activities and practices, public perception and recognition.
