Whitlock, Gordon Dutilleul, 2008-01-01 Too often individuals who have been called to practice their gifts and talents in the field of business and professional life sense that to serve God they ought to be doing something more directly involved with the church Many successful business leaders upon coming to faith in Christ or upon renewing their interest in God s Word struggle with whether or not they should enter vocational ministry Certainly God calls some from among the professions into such vocations but many simply haven t realized the full potential of where God has placed them God s people who are assigned to duties in corporate boardrooms or offices on sales forces in entrepreneurial ventures and as members of research and development teams are among his most effective servants Believers who are active in the marketplace are surely among God s most treasured ministers and have the potential to have a wider impact and larger influence than most who serve in full time vocational ministries Likewise these professionals have a capacity for great harm to the church and the cause of Christ if while they make claims of Christian belief their actions prove inconsistent with what God s Word teaches if their walk doesn t match their talk Be encouraged God wants to use you where you are He wants to sanctify all of what you have learned and experienced You have great potential in the kingdom
