Charter Schools and Their Enemies Thomas Sowell,2020-07-14 Winner of the 2021 Hayek Book Prize A leading conservative intellectual defends charter schools against the teachers unions politicians and liberal educators who threaten to dismantle their success The black white educational achievement gap so much discussed for so many years has already been closed by black students attending New York City s charter schools This might be expected to be welcome news But it has been very unwelcome news in traditional public schools whose students are transferring to charter schools A backlash against charter schools has been led by teachers unions politicians and others not only in New York but across the country If those attacks succeed the biggest losers will be minority youngsters for whom a quality education is their biggest chance for a better life The New York Times Index,2008 Wise Social Studies in an Age of High-Stakes Testing Elizabeth Anne Yeager,O. L. Davis,2005-08-01 The chapters in this volume illustrate how teachers are bringing creativity higher order thinking and meaningful learning activities into particular school settings despite pressures of standards and testing We chose the word wise for the title of this book and we use it frequently to describe the pedagogical practices we have identified The words powerful and ambitious are used as well The larger point as Keith C Barton makes in his chapter is that there is no necessary connection between content standards and high stakes tests on the one hand and lowlevel rote instruction on the other He reminds us as Thornton 1991 and Wiggins 1987 previously have argued that teachers play a crucial role in mediating educational policy and their intentions and interpretations have at least as much influence on classroom practice as does the content of standards and highstakes tests Barton also asserts that this makes it all the more crucial to identify the wisdom of practice that enables teachers to engage students in powerful educational experiences Good News! Gail A.
