Feminist Judgments of Aotearoa New Zealand Elisabeth McDonald, Rhonda Powell, Mamari Stephens, Rosemary Hunter, 2017-11-30 This edited collection asks how key New Zealand judgments might read if they were written by a feminist judge Feminist judging is an emerging critical legal approach that works within the confines of common law legal method to challenge the myth of judicial neutrality and illustrate how the personal experiences and perspectives of judges may influence the reasoning and outcome of their decisions Uniquely this book includes a set of cases employing an approach based on mana wahine the use of Maori values that recognise the complex realities of Maori women's lives Through these feminist and mana wahine judgments it opens possibilities of more inclusive judicial decision making for the future This Project stops us in our tracks and asks us how could things have been different At key moments in our legal history what difference would it have made if feminist judges had been at the tiller By doing so it raises a host of important questions What does it take to be a feminist judge Would we want our judges to be feminists and if so why Is there a uniquely female perspective to judging Professor Claudia Geiringer Faculty of Law Victoria University of Wellington With this book some of our leading jurists expose the biases and power structures that underpin legal rules and the interpretation of them Some also give voice to mana wahine perspectives on and about the law that have become invisible over time perpetuating the impacts of colonialism and patriarchy combined on Maori women I hope this book will be a catalyst for our nation to better understand and then seek to ameliorate these impacts Dr Claire Charters Associate Professor Faculty of Law University of Auckland The work is highly illuminating and is critical to the development of our legal system It is crucial not only for legal education so that students of the law open their minds to the different ways legal problems can be conceptualised and decided It is also crucial if we are going to have a truly just legal system where all the different voices and perspectives are fairly heard Professor Mark Henaghan Dean of the Faculty of Law University of Otago I believe this project is particularly important as few academics or researchers in New Zealand concentrate on judicial method I am therefore hopeful that it will provoke thoughtful debate in a critical area for society The Honourable Justice Helen Winkelmann New Zealand Court of Appeal

A Digest of Australasian Mining Cases James Grattan Eagleson, William Alexander Sanderson, Bernard O'Dowd, 1897 Tort Law in New Zealand Stephen Todd, 2017-11-20 Derived from the renowned multi volume International Encyclopaedia of Laws this book provides ready access to how the legal dimension of prevention against harm and loss allocation is treated in New Zealand This traditional branch of law not only tackles questions which concern every lawyer whatever his legal expertise but also concerns each person's most fundamental rights on a worldwide scale Following a general introduction that probes the distinction between tort and crime and the relationship between tort and contract the monograph describes how the concepts of fault and unlawfulness and of duty of care and negligence are dealt with in both the legislature and the courts The book then proceeds to cover specific cases of liability such as professional liability liability of public bodies abuse of rights injury to reputation and privacy vicarious liability liability of parents and teachers liability for handicapped persons product liability environmental liability and liability connected with road and traffic accidents Principles of causation grounds of justification limitations on recovery assessment of damages and compensation and the role of private insurance and social security are all closely considered Its succinct yet scholarly nature as well as the practical quality of the information it provides make this book a valuable resource for lawyers New Zealand Academics and researchers will also welcome this very useful guide and will appreciate its value not only as a contribution to comparative law but also as a stimulus to harmonization of the rules on tort New Zealand Farmer Weekly ,1950 The Law Quarterly Review ,1896 Transactions of the Royal Society of New Zealand Royal Society of New Zealand,1953 Includes proceedings of member institutes of the Society and of the Society s Science Congress through v 84 1956 57 Appendix to the Journals of the House of Representatives of New Zealand New Zealand.
