A Critical Companion to Stanley Kubrick Elsa Colombani,2020-10-16 A Critical Companion to Stanley Kubrick offers a thorough and detailed study of the films of the legendary director Labeled a recluse a provocateur and a perfectionist Kubrick revolutionized filmmaking from the use of music in film narrative pacing and structure to depictions of war and violence An unparalleled visionary his work continues to influence contemporary cinema and visual culture This book delves into the complexities of his work and examines the wide range of topics and the multiple interpretations that his films inspire The eighteen chapters in this book use a wide range of methodologies and explore new trends of research in film studies providing a series of unique and novel perspectives on all of Kubrick s thirteen feature films from Fear and Desire 1953 to Eyes Wide Shut 1999 as well as his work on A.I. Artificial Intelligence Steven Spielberg 2001

Feeling Film: Affect and Authenticity in Popular Cinema Greg Singh,2014-01-21 Cinema has the capacity to enflame our passions to arouse our pity to inspire our love Feeling Film is a book that examines the emotional encounters found in contemporary popular cinema cultures Examining melodrama film noir comic book franchises cult indie movies and romantic comedy within the context of a Jungian informed psychology and contemporary movements in film philosophy this book considers the various kinds of feelings engendered by our everyday engagements with cinema Greg Singh questions the popular idea of what cinema is and considers what happens during the anticipation and act of watching a movie through to the act of sharing our feelings about them the reviewing process and repeat viewing practices Feeling Film does this through a critique of purely textual approaches instead offering a model which emphasises lived warm embodied and inhabited psychological relationships between the viewer and the viewed It extends the narrative action of cinema beyond the duration of the screening into realms of anticipation and afterlife in particular providing insight into the tertiary and participatory practices afforded through rich media engagement In rethinking the everyday co productive relationship between viewer and viewed from this perspective Feeling Film reinstates the importance of feelings as a central concern for film theory What emerges from this study is a re engagement of the place of emotion affect and feeling in film theory and criticism In reconsidering the duration of the cinematic encounter Feeling Film makes a significant contribution to the understanding of the inter subjective relationship between viewer and viewed It takes post Jungian criticism into the realms of post cinema technologies and reignites the dialogue between depth psychology and the study of images as they appear to and for us This book will make essential reading for those interested in the relationship between film and aspects of depth psychology film and philosophy students at advanced undergraduate and postgraduate levels film and cinema academics and cinephiles
