

The background is a dark, textured blue-grey surface. Overlaid on this are several abstract digital elements: a network of red and white nodes connected by thin lines, a large white satellite dish in the upper right, and a large, glowing red sphere in the lower left. The overall aesthetic is high-tech and digital.

Islamophobia in Cyberspace Imran Awan, 2016-03-02 Cyber hate can take many different forms from online material which can lead to actual offline abuse and violence cyber violence cyber stalking and online harassment with the use of visual images videos chat rooms text and social media which are intended to cause harm This book examines the case for current guidelines dealing with online anti Muslim abuse and concludes that we require a new understanding of this online behaviour and the impact it can have on vulnerable communities It is unique as it focuses on new technology in the form of social media and the Internet and explores the challenges the police and other agencies face when confronting anti Muslim abuse in cyberspace It also provides a critique of how people are targeted by online offenders and helps us understand online anti Muslim behaviour in a much more detailed and comprehensive way by bringing together a range of experts who will examine this phenomenon and critically discuss why they think it has become so much more prevalent than it was before Online Misogyny as Hate Crime Kim Barker, Olga Jurasz, 2018-12-07 The ideal of an inclusive and participatory Internet has been undermined by the rise of misogynistic abuse on social media platforms However limited progress has been made at national and to an extent European levels in addressing this issue In England and Wales the tackling of underlying causes of online abuse has been overlooked because the law focuses on punishment rather than measures to prevent such abuses Furthermore online abuse has a significant impact on its victims that is underestimated by policymakers This volume critically analyses the legal provisions that are currently deployed to tackle forms of online misogyny and focuses on three aspects firstly the phenomenon of social media abuse secondly the poor and disparate legal responses to social media abuses and thirdly the similar failings of hate crime to tackle problems of online gender based abuses This book advances a compelling argument for legal changes to the existing hate crime and communications legislation The Routledge Handbook of Digital Consumption Rosa Llamas, Russell Belk, 2022-09-26 Since the publication of the ground breaking first edition there has been an exponential growth in research and literature about the digital world and its enormous potential benefits and threats Fully revised and updated this new edition brings together an expertly curated and authoritative overview of the impact and emerging horizons of digital consumption Divided into sections it addresses key topics including digital entertainment self representation communication Big Data digital spirituality online surveillance and algorithmic advertising It explores developments such as consumer data collection techniques peer to peer payment systems augmented reality and AI enhanced consumer well being as well as digital transgression secrecy crypto currencies NFTs and cultural concerns such as the spread of conspiracy theories and fake news From digital influencers digital nomads and digital neo tribalism to robots and cyborgs it explores existences that blur boundaries between humans and machines reality and the metaverse and the emerging technoculture a state of all encompassing digital being This unique volume is an essential resource for scholars practitioners and policy makers and will continue to provide a new generation of readers with a deep understanding of the universe of digital consumption

30 Rights of Muslim Women Daisy Khan, 2024-05-21 2025

Nautilus Award Winner Gold Religion This authoritative go to publication aims to educate women on how to express their rights within Islam Perfect for enabling activists to integrate an egalitarian Islamic belief system into their movements The most effective means of improving Muslim women s lives is connecting them to their deeply held beliefs that affirm human dignity and gender equality at the core of the Islamic faith But Muslim women lack this information that enlightens and vouches for their sacred rights and they have no accessible tools that encourage faith based activism consistent with the Islamic faith To protect them from being misrepresented by or outside their communities there is a need to provide pre packaged easy to understand literacy tools to women so they can lead lives of choice dignity and opportunity 30 Rights of Muslim Women aims to fill this gap

Tomorrow Belongs to Us Nigel Copsey, Matthew Worley, 2017-12-14 This book traces the varied development of the far right in Britain from the formation of the National Front in 1967 to the present day Experts draw on a range of disciplinary and methodological perspectives to provide a rich and detailed account of the evolution of the various strands of the contemporary far right over the course of the last fifty years The book examines a broad range of subjects including Holocaust denial neo Nazi groupuscularity transnational activities ideology cultural engagement homosexuality gender and activist mobilisation It also includes a detailed literature review This book is essential reading for students of fascism racism and contemporary British cultural and political history

Affective Formation of Publics Margreth Lünenborg, Birgitt Röttger-Rössler, 2023-09-01 This book offers an interdisciplinary analysis of current formations of publics that is informed by in depth knowledge of affect and emotion theory Using empirical case studies from contexts as diverse as India Pakistan Tanzania and the Americas as well as Europe the book challenges dichotomous distinctions between private and public Instead publics are understood as a relational structure that encompasses both people and their physical and mediatized environment While each kind of public is affectively constituted the intensity of its affective attunement varies considerably The volume is aimed at academic readers interested in understanding the dynamic and fluid forms of contemporary formation of publics be it digital or face to face encounters as well as in the intersection of both forms This includes researchers from media and communication studies social anthropology theatre or literary studies It is aimed at advanced students of these disciplines who are interested in the unfolding of contemporary publics

Islamophobia in Cyberspace Imran Awan, 2016

Islamophobic Hate Crime Imran Awan, Irene Zempi, 2019-07-16

In recent years there has been a sharp increase in anti Muslim attacks What is driving the proliferation of these hate crimes Why are Muslims being demonised Building on current research and drawing upon real life examples and case studies this book provides an accessible introduction to Islamophobia and Islamophobic hate crimes along with the various responses to this form of victimisation Chapters cover a range of topics including Definitions of hate crime and Islamophobia Islamophobic hate crime online Gender and Islamophobia Media representations of Islamophobia Institutional Islamophobia As one of the first student resources dedicated to the subject of Islamophobia this book will be instructive and important reading for those engaged in a range of topics in criminology including hate crime victimology and victimisation crime and media and gender and crime Islamophobia Irene Zempi,Imran Awan,2016-10-26 Islamophobia examines the online and offline experiences of hate crime against Muslims and the impact upon victims their families and wider communities Based on the first national hate crime study to examine the nature extent and determinants of Muslim victims of hate crime in the virtual and physical worlds it highlights the multidimensional relationship between online and offline anti Muslim attacks especially in a global context It includes the voices of victims themselves which leads to a more nuanced understanding of anti Muslim hate crime and prevention of future anti Muslim hate crime as well as strategies for future prevention Viral Hate Abraham H. Foxman,Christopher Wolf,2013-06-04 Emboldened by anonymity individuals and organizations from both left and right are freely spewing hateful vitriol on the Internet without worrying about repercussions Lies bullying conspiracy theories bigoted and racist rants and calls for violence targeting the most vulnerable circulate openly on the web And thanks to the guarantees of the First Amendment and the borderless nature of the Internet governing bodies are largely helpless to control this massive assault on human dignity and safety Abe Foxman and Christopher Wolf expose the threat that this unregulated flow of bigotry poses to the world They explore how social media companies like Facebook and YouTube as well as search engine giant Google are struggling to reconcile the demands of business with freedom of speech and the disturbing threat posed by today s purveyors of hate And they explain the best tools available to citizens parents educators law enforcement officers and policy makers to protect the twin values of transparency and responsibility As Foxman and Wolf show only an aroused and engaged citizenry can stop the hate contagion before it spirals out of control with potentially disastrous results
