The Greening Of Literary Scholarship Steven Rosendale, 2005-04 A collection of thirteen original essays by leaders in the emerging field of ecocriticism The Greening of Literary Scholarship is devoted to exploring new and previously neglected literatures theories and methods in environmental literary scholarship Each essay in this impressive collection challenges the notion that the study of environmental literature is separate from traditional concerns of criticism and each applies ecocritical scholarship to literature not commonly explored in this context New historicism postcolonialism deconstructionism and feminist and Marxist theories are all utilized to evaluate and gain new insights into environmental literature at the same time Percy Bysshe Shelley Upton Sinclair Leslie Marmon Silko and Susan Howe are studied from an ecocritical perspective At its core The Greening of Literary Scholarship offers a practical demonstration of how articulating traditional and environmental modes of literary scholarship can enrich the interpretation of literary texts and most important revitalize the larger fields of environmental and literary scholarship Scholarship, Money, and Prose Michael

Chibnik, 2020-05-15 An illuminating guide to publishing a scholarly journal written by a former editor in chief American Anthropologist is the flagship journal of the American Anthropological Association published quarterly reaching more than 12 000 readers with each issue and representing four distinct subfields The journal publishes articles that add to integrate synthesize and interpret anthropological knowledge commentaries and essays on issues of importance to the discipline and reviews of books films sound recordings and exhibits From 2012 to 2016 Michael Chibnik was editor in chief of American Anthropologist In Scholarship Money and Prose he writes a candid account of the complex and challenging work entailed in its production Providing detailed ethnographic and historical descriptions of the operations of a major journal and behind the scenes anecdotes of his experiences Chibnik makes transparent the work of an editor in chief He reveals how he assembled diverse materials assessed contradictory peer reviews of manuscripts submitted for publication and collaborated with authors to improve the legibility and clarity of their articles He also examines controversies that emerged from his columns on open access and biological anthropology and the inclusion of politically charged material in the journal Scholarship Money and Prose sheds light on two aspects of successful editing that are common to academic journals whatever their subject matter The first task is to strike a balance among different theoretical perspectives and topical specialties This pressure is particularly salient in a field like anthropology in which scholars differ greatly in the extent to which they adopt a scientific or humanistic perspective Second editors must attend carefully to the need to keep costs down and revenues up in an economic environment in which libraries are cutting subscriptions and publishers are considering the future sustainability of journals Relevant to a wide range of disciplines Scholarship Money and Prose serves as a window onto the past present and future of scholarly publishing Public Scholarship in Literary Studies Rachel Arteaga, 2021-05-21 Public Scholarship in Literary Studies demonstrates that literary criticism has the potential not only to explain but to actively change our terms of engagement with current realities Rachel Arteaga and Rosemary Johnsen bring together accomplished public scholars who make significant contributions to literary scholarship teaching and the public good The volume begins with essays by scholars who write regularly for large public audiences in primarily digital venues then moves to accounts of research based teaching and engagement in public contexts and finally turns to important new models for cross institutional partnerships and campus community engagement Grounded in scholarship and written in an accessible style Public Scholarship in Literary Studies will appeal to scholars in and outside the academy students and those interested in the public humanities There are books of literary criticism that attempt to reach crossover audiences but none that take this particular public humanities focused on literary criticism perspective Kathryn Temple Georgetown University Contributions by Rachel Arteaga Christine Chaney Jim Cocola Daniel Coleman Christopher Douglas Gary Handwerk Cynthia L Haven Rosemary Erickson Johnsen Anu Taranath Carmaletta M Williams and Lorraine York Research Methods for African Scholarship Kehbuma Langmia, Chuka Onwumehili, Laban Ayiro, Agnes Lucy Lando, 2024-11-19 This book spotlights and demystifies under researched elements of research design to support successful research initiatives undertaken by students in African universities This volume marks a significant and important departure from research design books rooted in European and American socio cultural context and places emphasis on contextual realities in Africa Attending to socio cultural oral and written methods of eliciting data from participants contextual sampling techniques oral and third party open ended survey instrumentation and multi pronged data analysis schemes that emphasize ontological epistemological and axiological findings these chapters constitute a novel and much needed focus on realities and examples from the continent of Africa Written by African scholars the book will appeal to post graduate students and early career scholars and researchers with interests in research methods across the social sciences Engaged Scholarship and Emancipation Toon van Meijl, Frans Wijzen, 2023-06-26 This collective volume celebrates that 75 years ago the foundation was laid for the Department of Anthropology and Development Studies at Radboud University Nijmegen the Netherlands The contributions to this volume exemplify the evolution of the academic disciplines of anthropology and development studies at Radboud University in the course of its history Radboud University itself celebrates its centenary in the year 2023 Originally this university was established for the emancipation of the Catholic population in the Netherlands Emancipation continues to be a distinctive feature of the university s policy also of the scholarship as it is conducted in the department of anthropology and development studies As emancipation and engagement are key concepts in the disciplines of anthropology and development studies at Radboud University former and current staff members focus their contributions to this anniversary volume on the various meanings of the concepts of emancipation and engagement in their academic practices They reflect on changes in the meaning of engaged scholarship in their own work especially in relation to emancipatory issues The outcome is a rich variety of contributions centering on the shifting tension between engagement and scholarship in the disciplines of anthropology and development studies Thus they not only exemplify the evolution of these academic disciplines at Radboud University but also offer a topical and innovative perspective on a highly dynamic field The Athletic Recruiting & Scholarship Guide for High School Athletes & Parents Wayne Mazzoni,2003 This book shows athletes how to get the best out of the recruiting process conduct it like a job search wherein the student athlete is marketed to college coaches You must target the right schools and then market yourself in the right way Once a coach becomes interested many other issues must be settled NCAA
