Making Grants Efficiently in the Culture, Media and Sport Sector Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Committee of Public Accounts, 2008 This inquiry took evidence from the Department for Culture Media and Sport the Department Arts Council England Big Lottery Fund English Heritage and Sport England on assessing the cost efficiency of making grants on supporting grant applicants on sharing services and information and on making applications on line In 2006 07 the nine principal grant makers sponsored by the Department awarded grants of 1 8 billion and spent 200 million on administering the grants and related activities The grants ranged in size from 200 to many millions of pounds The bodies held little information on the costs of their individual grant programmes and how these costs compare with others The average cost of awarding 1 of grant across a sample of open application programmes in the sector ranged from three pence to 35 pence Much of the variance in cost can be explained by the different objectives of the programmes and the needs of applicants Grant makers often receive applications which are incomplete or inaccurate One way they could reduce the burden on grant applicants would be through inviting applications on line This would also help reduce the costs to grant makers by reducing the amount of paper applications they have to process and the number of incomplete and ineligible applications In the past the Committee has recommended that the Department should take the lead in identifying the scope for savings by encouraging the organisations it funds to share accommodation and services Little progress appears to be have made in this area The Department has also done little to encourage benchmarking and the sharing of good practice across the sector The ALA Book of Library Grant Money, Ninth Edition Nancy Kalikow Maxwell, 2014-02-03 This all in one resource for researching library and school grants is back in a new edition and more useful than ever offering refreshed content and even more guidance on locating grant funding sources Using this guide librarians fundraisers and researchers will find quick convenient access to information on the most likely funding sources for libraries including private foundations corporate foundations corporate direct givers government agencies and library and nonprofit organizations Edited by Nancy Kalikow Maxwell a grant writer with 35 years of experience this edition includes more than 200 new entries as well as A detailed introduction explaining the concept of grant readiness and walking readers through the steps of preparing their institution for a grant project including strategic planning conducting a needs assessment and identifying potential partners Guidance on the most effective ways to use the directory with an explanation of inclusion criteria and data elements Multiple indexes for finding the right information fast A new section covering grant related organizations and sources to aid readers looking for grant writers or grant development assistance The challenge of finding the money will be made easier with this guide s clear and comprehensive information pored over the giant map in their middle school classroom tracing their fingers over the world that awaited them vowing to escape In the end Monica left Clinton for college and fulfilled her dreams but Darci along with many in their circle of friends did not Years later working as a journalist covering poverty Potts discovered what she already intuitively knew about the women in Arkansas Their life expectancy had dropped steeply the sharpest such fall in a century This decline has been attributed to deaths of despair suicide alcoholism and drug overdoses but Potts knew their causes were too complex to identify in a sociological study She had grown up with these women and when she saw Darci again she found that her childhood friend addicted to drugs often homeless a single mother was now on track to becoming a statistic In this gripping narrative Potts deftly pinpoints the choices that sent her and Darci on such different paths and then widens the lens to explain why those choices are so limited The Forgotten Girls is a profound compassionate look at a population in trouble and a uniquely personal account of the way larger forces such as inheritance education religion and politics shape individual lives
