specific sports Calling the game for both radio and television Conducting interviews Sports network operations and working with advertisers How to be the face of the team Featuring breakout sections with expert insight from leaders in the field including Cubs announcer Pat Hughes and ESPN ABC's Dusty Dvoracek and profiles of great interviewers such as the late Jack Buck and ESPN host and reporter Marty Smith Sports casting in the Digital Age is full of practical guidance and behind the scenes details that will prepare the next generation of sportscasters for success Digital Media Sport Brett Hutchins, David Rowe, 2013-09-05 Live broadband streaming of the 2008 Beijing Olympics accounted for 2 200 of the estimated 3 600 total hours shown by the American NBC Universal networks At the 2012 London Olympics unprecedented multi platforming embraced online mobile devices game consoles and broadcast television with the BBC providing 2 500 hours of live coverage including every competitive event much in high definition and some in 3D The BBC also had 12 million requests for video on mobile phones and 9 2 million browsers on its mobile Olympics website and app This pattern will only intensify at future sport mega events like the 2014 FIFA World Cup and 2016 Summer Olympics both of which will take place in Brazil Increasingly when people talk of the screen that delivers footage of their favorite professional sport they are describing desktop laptop and tablet computer screens as well as television and mobile handsets Digital Media Sport analyzes the intersecting issues of technological change market power and cultural practices that shape the contemporary global sports media landscape The complexity of these related issues demands an interdisciplinary approach that is adopted here in a series of thematically organized essays by international scholars working in media studies Internet studies sociology cultural studies and sport studies Horsehide, Pigskin, Oval Tracks and Apple Pie James A. Vlasich, 2015-09-18 This work brings together 16 of the best presentations on sport from the conferences of the Popular Culture Association Topics include baseball the 1941 World Series the career of Stan Musial Italian Americans in the game and Japanese players golf Tiger Woods and the culture wars over women at Augusta National football integration at UCLA the controversy over the Indian mascot at Florida State and the creation of the New Orleans Saints auto racing the revival of dirt tracks racing's roots in Virginia NASCAR in Eastern Iowa and the NASCAR fan and sports and men marketing in hockey social class and fishing and Muhammad Ali's last stand Together the essays demonstrate that sports are deeply woven into the fabric of American culture a tapestry of society with all its heroism and triumph failures and flaws Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Preparation of Annual Disclosure Documents, 2008 Evaluating Information Retrieval and Access Tasks Tetsuya Sakai, Douglas W. Oard, Noriko Kando, 2020-09-01 This open access book summarizes the first two decades of the NII Testbeds and Community for Information access Research NTCIR NTCIR is a series of evaluation forums run by a global team of researchers and hosted by the National Institute of Informatics NII Japan The book is unique in that it discusses not just what was done at NTCIR but also how it was done and the impact it has achieved For example in some chapters the reader sees the early seeds of what eventually grew to be the search engines that provide access to content on the World Wide Web today's smartphones that can tailor what they show to the needs of their owners and the smart speakers that enrich our lives at home and on the move We also get glimpses into how new search engines can be built for mathematical formulae or for the digital record of a lived human life Key to the success of the NTCIR endeavor was early recognition that information access research is an empirical discipline and that evaluation therefore lay at the core of the enterprise Evaluation is thus at the heart of each chapter in this book They show for example how the recognition that some documents are more important than others has shaped thinking about evaluation design The thirty three contributors to this volume speak for the many hundreds of researchers from dozens of countries around the world who together shaped NTCIR as organizers and participants This book is suitable for researchers practitioners and students anyone who wants to learn about past and present evaluation efforts in information retrieval information access and natural language processing as well as those who want to participate in an evaluation task or even to design and organize one with an all Hispanic crew It was an open area steaming with heat and the acrid smell of burned wood filled our lungs We were near a thirty foot hill and both crews lined up and covered the area slowly taking one glove off and feeling for heat with the back of a bare hand Glancing at Sarah and Linda I thought This fire is a piece of cake with frosting The fire gods had a different message for us

Clubbie Greg Larson, 2021-04 If Clubbie isn't the best piece of baseball literature since Ball Four it's the leader in the clubhouse Los Angeles Daily News A well written realistic and necessary addition to current baseball literature Library Journal Greg Larson was a starry eyed fan when he hurtled headfirst into professional baseball As the new clubhouse attendant for the Aberdeen IronBirds a Minor League affiliate of the Baltimore Orioles Larson assumed he'd entered a familiar world He thought wrong He quickly discovered the bizarre rituals of life in the Minors fights between players teammates quitting in the middle of the games doomed relationships and a negligent parent organization All the while Larson fresh out of college harbored a secret wish Despite the team's struggles and his own lack of baseball talent he yearned to join the exclusive fraternity of professional ballplayers Instead Larson fell deeper into his madcap venture as the scheming clubbie He moved into the clubhouse equipment closet his headquarters to swing deals involving memorabilia booze and loads of cash By his second season Larson had transformed into a deceptive dip spitting veteran now fully part of a system that exploited players he considered friends Like most Minor Leaguers the gravitational pull of baseball was still too strong for Larson even if chasing his private dream might cost him his girlfriend his future and ultimately his love of the game That is until an unlikely shot at a championship gives Larson and the IronBirds one final swing at redemption Clubbie is a hilarious behind the scenes tale of two seasons in the mysterious world of Minor League Baseball With cinematic detail and a colorful cast of characters Larson spins an unforgettable true story for baseball fans and nonfans alike An unflinching look at the harsh experience of professional sports Clubbie will be a touchstone in baseball literature for years to come

Professor Baseball Edwin Amenta, 2008-09-15 It happens every summer packs of beer bellied men with gloves and aluminum bats putting their middle aged bodies to the test on the softball diamond For some this yearly ritual is driven by a simple desire to enjoy a good ballgame for others it's a way to forge friendships and rivalries But for one short wild haired bespectacled professor playing softball in New York's Central Park means a whole lot more It's one last chance to heal the nagging wounds of Little League trauma before the rust of decline and the relentless responsibilities of fatherhood set in Professor Baseball is the coming of middle age story of New York University professor and Little League benchwarmer Edwin Amenta As rookie manager of the Performing Arts Softball League's doormat Sharkeys he reverses softball's usual brawn over brains formula He coaxes his skeptical teammates to follow his sabermetric and sociological approach based equally on Bill James and Max Weber which in the heady days of early success he dubs Eddy Ball But Amenta soon learns that his teammates' attachments to favorite positions and time honored if ineffective strategies are hard to break especially when the team begins losing And though he rejects the baseball as life metaphor life keeps intruding on his softball season Amenta here comes to grips with the humiliation of assisted reproduction suffers mysterious ailments and finds himself lingering at the sponsor's bar while his partner a beautiful but baseball challenged professor second guesses his book in the making Can he turn his team and his life around Packed with colorful personalities dramatic games and the bustle of New York life Professor Baseball will charm anyone who has ever root root rooted for the underdog Sports in American Life Richard O.
