Up close Inauguration Day 2021 looked like any other the chief justice of the US Supreme Court administering the oath of office to the new president on the steps of the U S Capitol But pull the lens back and this was anything but a typical election and transition of power In A Return to Normalcy Larry Sabato Kyle Kondik and J Miles Coleman bring together respected journalists analysts and scholars to examine every facet of the stunning 2020 election and its aftermath and how these events will impact American politics moving forward In frank accessible prose each author offers insight that goes beyond the headlines and dives into the underlying forces and shifts that drove the election from its earliest developments to its chaotic conclusion A Return to Normalcy is an indispensable read for political junkies and all students of American politics The

Return of Industrial Policy in Data Simon Evenett,Adam Jakubik,Fernando Martín,Michele Ruta,2024-01-04 This paper introduces the New Industrial Policy Observatory NIPO dataset and documents emergent patterns of policy intervention during 2023 associated with the return of industrial policy The data show that the recent wave of new industrial policy activity is primarily driven by advanced economies and that subsidies are the most employed instrument Trade restrictions on imports and exports are more frequently used by emerging market and developing economies Strategic competitiveness is the dominant motive governments give for these measures but other objectives such as climate change resilience and national security are on the rise In exploratory regressions we find that implemented measures are correlated with the past use of measures by other governments in the same sector pointing to the tit for tat nature of industrial policy Furthermore domestic political economy factors and macroeconomic conditions correlate with the use of industrial policy measures We intend for the NIPO to be a publicly available resource to help monitor the evolution and effects of industrial policies
