The Book Whisperer Donalyn Miller, 2009-03-16 Turn any student into a bookworm with a few easy and practical strategies Donalyn Miller says she has yet to meet a child she can't turn into a reader No matter how far behind Miller's students might be when they reach her 6th grade classroom they end up reading an average of 40 to 50 books a year Miller's unconventional approach dispenses with drills and worksheets that make reading a chore Instead she helps students navigate the world of literature and gives them time to read books they pick out themselves Her love of books and teaching is both infectious and inspiring In the book you'll find Hands on strategies for managing and improving your own school library Tactics for helping students walk on their own two feet and continue the reading habit after they've finished with your class Data from student surveys and end of year feedback that proves how well the Miller Method works The Book Whisperer includes a dynamite list of recommended kid lit that helps parents and teachers find the books that students really like to read Beyond Tolerance Dierdre G. Paul, 2017-03-21 Beyond Tolerance is a hopeful optimistic book focused on creating positive and sustained social change through engagement with beautiful sometimes complex and consistently interesting multiethnic children's literature It presents a fresh perspective on race and ethnicity Additionally it features an innovative approach to literacy teaching and learning through the use of multiethnic children's literature in our preschools and throughout the elementary school grades How to Judge a Book by its Cover Kate Cuthbert, 2025-11-17 Combining both an industry and research focus How to Judge a Book by its Cover not only judges books by their covers but provides a methodology for others to do the same Despite book titles and book covers having been identified defined and discussed as paratexts beginning first with Gérard Genette and by many paratextual and publishing scholars since there is currently no methodology or defined vocabulary for the analysis and discussion of their creation the intent and effect of their structure and their constituent elements As these paratexts become further and further removed from their texts then like texts they can and should be studied especially as literature is inextricably embedded in industrial and social currents How to Judge a Book by its Cover looks more deeply at book covers and book titles two paratexts that are of broad academic interest but crucial to the placement marketing and commerce of the publishing industry Bringing together paratextual studies publishing studies and media studies visual design analysis and the world of advertising this work marries academic rigour with industry experience to first define the role that book covers and book titles play and then articulate a methodology for their analysis By identifying intent behind book covers and book titles defining the elements that may be achieved in this intent and providing opportunities to measure their success both scholars and industry professionals will have a clear and robust vocabulary in discussions of these key marketing paratexts This book can be used for students and researchers that are interested in media studies paratextual studies publishing internet studies post colonial studies and popular fiction studies Information for a Better World: Normality, Virtuality, Physicality, Inclusivity Isaac Sserwanga, Anne Goulding, Heather Moulaison-Sandy, Jia Tina Du, António Lucas Soares, Viviane Hessami, Rebecca D. Frank, 2023-03-09 This two volume set LNCS 13971 13972 constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 18th International Conference on Information for a Better World Normality Virtuality Physicality Inclusivity held in March 2023 The 36 full papers and the 46 short papers presented in these proceedings were carefully reviewed and selected from 197 submissions They cover topics such as Archives and Records Behavioral Research Information Governance and Ethics AI and Machine Learning Data Science Information and Digital literacy Cultural Perspectives Knowledge Management and Intellectual Capital Social Media and Digital Networks Libraries Human Computer Interaction and Technology Information Retrieval
