Get Your Book Seen and Sold Claudine Wolk, Julie Murkette, 2023-09-25 Book marketing is intimidating for most authors. It's like learning a new language. Most authors believe that writing the book is the hard part of publishing and that they are done after writing the words. The End. Those in the publishing industry know better. The hard part of publishing starts after the book is completed. By the time most authors realize that they need to market their book, they are too late. Wolk and Murkette set out to change that outcome by providing an easy, fun system for book marketing that is straightforward and understandable. Authors want one thing: to give their books the BEST chance to be seen and sold. Today, authors have so many easy ways to publish, literally at their fingertips, but after hitting the publish button, they find book sales elusive. In the brand new guide Get Your Book Seen and Sold, authors Claudine Wolk and Julie Murkette provide an easy book marketing strategy with a definitive starting point and a clear map. Through fun graphs, examples, and exercises in the guide, authors will stay focused and find the empowerment to successfully promote their books.

Stories Can Save Us Matt Tullis, 2024-06 Great journalism relies on a narrative arc to engage and inform the reader. Stories Can Save Us looks at how the best reporters and writers craft narrative literary journalism. Journalist Matt Tullis uses the material he gathered in the more than seventy-five interviews he conducted with the best narrative and literary journalists in the country through his podcast Gangrey The Podcast to show how these professionals conceive and write such compelling stories. Through his podcast, Tullis interviewed Pulitzer Prize winners, National Magazine Award winners, and many authors of books of narrative journalism, including New York Times best-selling authors. He also spoke with reporters of different races and backgrounds, styles, and strengths. Journalists who have been published in the most prestigious newspapers and magazines to ask: How do they find story ideas? How do they reach out to potential story subjects? What are their interview strategies? How do they conduct other information gathering? How do they come up with their amazing and enticing leads? How do they develop story structure? How does the story change in the revision process? How do they make their stories great and make them into the types of stories that people read and talk about for years? Through Tullis's conversations with these top-tier journalists, we are offered a window into their methods and practices as well as the motivations behind great journalism and how it speaks to the cultural climate of its time. Tullis's goal was to expand the power and potential of what amazing reporting and narrative writing can do, believing that it can literally change a reader's mood and possibly a reader's life.
