Gets What—and Why Alvin E. Roth, 2024-04-16 From the winner of the Nobel Prize in Economics a fluent and accessible guide to understanding matching markets Economist.com An exciting practical approach to economics that enables both individuals and institutions to achieve their goals without running afoul of the profit motive Kirkus Reviews starred review Most of the study of economics deals with commodity markets where the price of a good connects sellers and buyers But what about other kinds of goods like a spot in the Yale freshman class or a position at Google If you've ever sought a job or hired someone applied to college or guided your child into a good kindergarten asked someone out on a date or been asked out you've participated in a kind of market This is the territory of matching markets where sellers and buyers must choose each other and price isn't the only factor determining who gets what In Who Gets What and Why Nobel laureate Alvin E. Roth reveals the matching markets hidden around us and shows us how to recognize a good match and make smarter more confident decisions In this fascinating often surprising book Alvin Roth guides us through the jungles of modern life pointing to the many markets that are hidden in plain view all around us Dan Ariely author of Predictably Irrational and The Honest Truth About Dishonesty Mr. Roth's work has been to discover the most efficient and equitable methods of matching and implement them in the world He writes with verve and style Who Gets What and Why is a pleasure to read Wall Street Journal A book filled with wit charm common sense and uncommon wisdom Paul Milgrom professor of economics Stanford University and Stanford Business School Personalization and Digital Social Markets Tahir M. Nisar, 2025-01-09 Tahir Nisar presents a cogent compelling account of recent developments and disruptions within the digital economy and particularly within the industrial and service sectors Through an original overarching framework rooted in the concept of personalization and its antecedents Nisar identifies radically new forms of relationships both economic and social among firms and customers These new relationships are driving major changes in commercial and industrial firms policies and practices and in turn in the entire market economy E-commerce trading user-generated content virtual communities co-creation influencer movements FinTech and sharing economies have strengthened the hands of consumers and have encouraged developments in cognitive technologies such as AI automation which in turn create new ways of working and disruptions to traditional capital labour relations Ultimately what emerges from this study is a picture of how digital
