Matchmakers David S. Evans, Richard Schmalensee, 2016-05-03 A different kind of matchmaker Many of the most dynamic public companies from Alibaba to Facebook to Visa and the most valuable start-ups such as Airbnb and Uber are matchmakers that connect one group of customers with another group of customers Economists call matchmakers multisided platforms because they provide physical or virtual platforms for multiple groups to get together Dating sites connect people with potential matches for example and ride sharing apps do the same for drivers and riders Although matchmakers have been around for millennia they're becoming more and more popular and profitable due to dramatic advances in technology and a lot of companies that have managed to crack the code of this business model have become today's power brokers Don't let the flashy successes fool you though Starting a matchmaker is one of the toughest business challenges and almost everyone who tries to build one fails In Matchmakers David Evans and Richard Schmalensee two economists who were among the first to analyze multisided platforms and discover their principles and who've consulted for some of the most successful platform businesses in the world explain how matchmakers work best in practice why they do what they do and how entrepreneurs can improve their chances for success Whether you're an entrepreneur an investor a consumer or an executive your future will involve more and more multisided platforms and Matchmakers rich with stories from platform winners and losers is the one book you'll need in order to navigate this appealing but confusing world

Thomas Kolster, 2020-05-28 Most companies today are firmly on the social and environmental issues bandwagon like bees around a honey pot from plastic in oceans through to diversity As a result people are increasingly distrustful of these efforts which they view as cheap marketing stunts meant to wow people into buying more Try to fly like a superman and you will come down like a tin of soup Market economists have long told us that we're driven only by money and status but the inherent human truth that cuts across age culture and gender uncovers a stronger force we wish to be in charge of our own lives and our own happiness Through extensive growth and affinity research world renowned purpose pioneer Thomas Kolster uncovers a simple answer that is key to driving marketing growth in the 21st century if you put people in control of the marketing mix from products to promotion they can grow and in turn grow your organisation This book explains the meteoric rise of a company like AirBnB how a 20 something Swede Maria de la Croix built a global coffee empire like Wheelys in just a few years and how a group of friends hanging out in a bar in Melbourne created one of the largest global non profits fighting for men's health Movember and how you can empower people to do the same Today's power no longer rests in the hands of the privileged few but in the talented many It is time for you to unleash that power in numbers Drawing on top line marketing case studies and in depth interviews Kolster demonstrates how people are truly motivated to act when they're in charge of their own life and happiness Who can you help me become is the one essential question you need to be asking and acting on to chart a new course for your organisation changing behaviours at scale and unlocking sustainable growth that benefits all Clean Coder Robert C.
