Love Rebels Kitty Stryker,2025-10-17 An exploration of how to balance activism and relationships without burning out Balancing a devotion to activism with personal relationships can be incredibly difficult Kitty Stryker shares her experience as an activist street medic and relationship educator to help others pursue the important work while maintaining healthy relationships and without burning out In what is both a call to action and a candid memoir Stryker is open about what she has learned and her perceived limitations Recognizing that it can feel overwhelming to know how to effectively make change she encourages readers to consider how they can best advocate for causes they believe in presenting different types of activism and urging readers to honestly examine their own hesitations She also emphasizes that without taking care of our interpersonal relationships many people burn out of activism at the very time when we need more people on the ground and she offers practical strategies to avoid this and to encourage healthy relationships Poetry in the Digital Age Claudia Benthien,Vadim Keylin,Henrik Wehmeier,2025-10-14 As a multifaceted and intermedial phenomenon poetry in the digital age not only demands a rethinking and expansion of the traditional paradigms of literary studies but also attracts increasing attention from other humanities This interdisciplinary handbook is thus addressed both to literary scholars and to the broadest academic audience interested in contemporary poetry research It offers 50 contributions by an international collective of authors that highlight the diversity of contemporary poetry examining it from a wide variety of complementing theoretical and methodological angles The handbook focuses on contemporary modes of poetry presentation that are often located beyond the book e g on stages in public spaces as multi as well as transmedia publications or on digital platforms Such intermedial poetic practices which may supplement poetic language with elements borrowed from music visual art cinema or theater and performance are transforming the forms and functions of poetry It four parts thus 1 adapt established concepts and parameters of poetry research to the digital age 2 explore established genres and emerging formats 3 introduce interdisciplinary perspectives and new research fields and 4 engage in current debates

Chronicles of Care: A Design History of the COVID-19 Virus Paul A. Rodgers, Fernando Galdon, Craig Bremner, 2024-04-16 The Covid 19 crisis and the designed interventions that the authors have catalogued in this book prove definitively that design does care The authors documented this as it evolved every day from the 1st January 2020 to 31st May 2020 inclusive Then they looked at all of this care and caring from the point of view of design and by the sheer volume of design interventions they have documented illustrate that design is good in a crisis What the Covid 19 pandemic illustrated is that for the first time in modern history capital was totally irrelevant Money could not save your life Only design could Rapidly designed masks shelters hospitals instructional posters infographics dashboards respirators sanitisers virtual and local communities emerged to save us From January 2020 design became king The Covid 19 global pandemic presented an ontological reality design is more than margins or profit In fact design became extremely valuable when it stopped concentrating on those things and started to care about peoples lives This brief episode in history is still repositioning the status of design and reconfiguring its signifier from consumption to care The contents of this book cover the outbreak lockdown and the beginning of the reopening in the UK In between the book functions as a history of pandemic crisis design interventions As such it is a research in the moment project where we have illustrated our thoughts and insights in tables charts and diagrams We have accepted all design interventions as valid and given them the same role and status by presenting each of them in a standard format No curation No selection No position The task of critical analysis must follow perhaps by us certainly by others
