Fashion and Film Peter Bug,2019-09-17 This book aims to explore various aspects of the use of moving images in fashion retail and fashion apparel companies in store or online The use of moving images is growing in numbers and in relevance for consumers Films can be used in various forms by fashion businesses in traditional media like cinema or TV and in modern forms like in social media or moving images in high street stores The book provides a data oriented analysis of the state of the art with certain future outlooks Additional areas of covering fashion in moving images such as fashion company identity films or fashion and music videos are covered in order to get a more complete analysis from a consumer influenced perspective Can I Say No? Stefanie Preissner,2019-05-09 For most of her life Stefanie Preissner was a people pleaser From hair raising sleepovers and endless offers of cake to unwanted second dates and unrealistic work demands she said yes to everything even if it scared her or made her uncomfortable Until one day she realised that her life had become more about agreeing to other people s decisions than making any of her own What did she want And how would she figure this out So Stefanie made a decision she would start saying no To everything Hilarious and honest Can I Say No follows Stefanie through managing her fear of disappointing people the thrill of setting boundaries and finally coming to understand that she was worth more than the sum of her yeses But is no always the right answer And what s the secret to finding the right balance so you can say YES to who you really are What Stefanie captures so beautifully is that our value and worth are not tied to saying yes to everything that s asked of us Arianna Huffington

Terror Down Under Daniel Best,2023-07-20 In 1948 the Australian government banned the production importation and exhibition of horror films in a move to appease religious communities and entertainment watchdogs Drawing upon previously unseen government documents private letters and contemporary newspaper accounts this book is the first to extensively cover the history of censorship and the early production of horror movies in Australia Beginning its examination in the late 19th century the book documents the earliest horror films like Georges Melies The Haunted Castle 1896 and how Australians enjoyed such films before the ban The book then explains how certain imports like 1954 s Creature from the Black Lagoon were able to circumvent the ban while others were not It also reveals how Australian television though similarly impacted by government censorship was occasionally able to broadcast films technically banned from cinematic release The work concludes with a look at the first Australian horror films produced after the ban was formally lifted in 1969 like Terry Bourke s Night of Fear 1973 Focus On: 100 Most Popular Gangster Films Wikipedia contributors, Jet ,2002-01-21 The
