Research Handbook on University Rankings Hazelkorn, Ellen, Mihut, Georgiana, 2021-12-10 Gathering unique and thoughtful contributions from leading international scholars this timely Research Handbook offers diverse perspectives on university rankings twenty years after the first global rankings emerged It presents an in depth analysis that reflects the current state of research on rankings their influence and impact Ranking Business Schools Linda Wedlin, 2006-01-01 In her admirable book Wedlin entangles what business school rankings really are and why they have become so important The book contains plenty to interest the growing army of business school employees whose duties at least in part are concerned with boosting their institution s position in the rankings Education and Training In times when the management education field is increasingly impacted by a proliferation of ranking exercises this book is a timely and welcome contribution Linda Wedlin unpacks for us the real meaning of the contemporary explosion of rankings Rather than simple classification schemes and mechanisms rankings are she suggests arenas where the field of business education is being created and re created They are the loci of boundary work whereby a field is progressively evolving and constituting itself This is a convincing study relying on rich empirical data and carefully anchored in relevant theoretical debates A must read for all those academics students policy makers and education professionals who want to understand the complex contemporary logics of higher education in management but also probably well beyond Marie Laure Djelic ESSEC Business School Paris France League tables appear everywhere and have become important aspects of business school environments Based on in depth and creatively combined empirical studies Linda Wedlin provides us with explanations and insights on the emergence and impact of such rankings This book should be of great value for all those who seek to play the ranking game It gives a fresh perspective on how classification mechanisms drive the emergence boundary setting and change of organizational fields Kerstin Sahlin Andersson Uppsala University Sweden A fascinating study of the complex issues surrounding MBA rankings Business schools really hate them but at times have to pretend to love them Magazines and newspapers are really interested in their sales potential but have to make pretensions about their veracity Linda Wedlin focuses on an area rich in hypocrisy and hype but also one where there are real consequences ranking furthered re inforces the homogenising tendencies of MBAs Anthony Hopwood Sa d Business School University of Oxford UK This is a most fascinating topic dealt with in a manner which is both serious and entertaining everyone in a business school would want to read it Linda Wedlin s excellent research is presented with a no nonsense approach if there is anything worth counting she counts it and then interprets it no fuss Exemplary Barbara Czarniawska G teborg University Sweden This engaging book offers a fresh perspective on the burgeoning field of European management education and its intense concern with rankings Using a creative mix of well crafted research tools Wedlin deftly captures a professional field in transition as it both expands and develops shared standards Walter W Powell Stanford University US International comparisons and rankings of universities and business

schools have proliferated in recent years Ranking Business Schools provides a welcome analysis of this development and its implications for the field of management education theorizing the role of classifications such as rankings in forming and structuring organizational fields Focusing on the European experience with rankings and the subsequent response the book illustrates how business schools use rankings to form identities and positions and to draw boundaries for the field By both creating and confirming belonging to a business school community and providing distinction within that group rankings are important for defining an international field of management education organizations constructing an international business school market and constitute an arena for debating and establishing the boundaries of this field Building an extensive theoretical framework for understanding classification

College Admissions and Admissions Testing in a Time of Transformational Change Kurt F. Geisinger, 2022-12-30 Perhaps no topic in higher education is more controversial than admissions whether it be to a prestigious college graduate schools or professional schools In response to the pandemic and a host of race relations issues in the country many colleges and universities have changed their policies regarding admissions testing In this foundational volume renowned chapter authors address a diverse set of themes related to college admissions examining new perspectives exploring the strengths and weaknesses of current practices and discussing how institutions might use different techniques to attract diverse students particularly those who have not traditionally attended college Experts in college admission testing admissions research and psychology come together to provide empirically based approaches and ideas Ultimately this volume advances a future in college admissions where more students are able to succeed in college and beyond

Competing in Tough Times Barry R. Berman, 2010-11-05 Competing in Tough Times brings together the powerful new strategies that world class retailers like Trader Joe s Costco and Nordstrom are using today to survive and thrive in a brutally unforgiving retail environment Internationally respected retail management expert Barry Berman shows retailers and their suppliers exactly how to build effective strategies based on cost and differentiation plan and implement those strategies and measure the results Berman offers detailed coverage of implementing strategies based on becoming the low cost provider and minimizing product proliferation enhancing the service experience developing and maintaining a strong private label program and more To support each approach he presents full length examples from retailers covering every market sector from consumer goods to apparel to technology He thoroughly examines top retailers such as Aldi Amazon com L L Bean Publix Stew Leonard s Wegman s and Whole Foods and shares powerful insights drawn from the experiences of other leaders from Au Bon Pain to Best Buy Family Dollar to Target Tesco to Walgreen

Statistical Reference Index ,1980 Angriff der Algorithmen Cathy O'Neil, 2017-08-21 Algorithmen nehmen Einfluss auf unser Leben Von ihnen h ngt es ab ob man etwa einen Kredit f r sein Haus erh lt und wie viel man f r die Krankenversicherung bezahlt Cathy O Neil ehemalige Hedgefonds Managerin und heute Big Data Whistleblowerin erkl rt wie Algorithmen in der Theorie objektive Entscheidungen erm glichen im wirklichen Leben aber m chtigen Interessen folgen

Algorithmen nehmen Einfluss auf die Politik gefährden freie Wahlen und manipulieren über soziale Netzwerke sogar die Demokratie. Cathy O'Neil's dringlicher Appell zeigt wie sie Diskriminierung und Ungleichheit verstärken und so zu Waffen werden die das Fundament unserer Gesellschaft erschüttern

The Years That Matter Most Paul Tough, 2019-09-12 What has gone wrong in our universities And how do we make it right When Amy applied to university she thought she'd be judged purely on her merits But she never thought that her family background would have as much impact on her future as her grades When KiKi arrived at university she knew she could be the only black woman in her class But she didn't know how out of place she would feel nor how unwelcoming her peers would be When Orry graduated from university he was told he'd probably land a six figure salary But he wasn't told he'd end up barely scraping a living wage struggling to feed his children Drawing on the stories of hundreds of American students The Years That Matters Most is a revelatory account of a university system in crisis Paul Tough bestselling author of How Children Succeed exposes a world where small town colleges go bust while the most prestigious raise billions every year where overstretched admissions officers are forced to pick rich candidates over smart ones where black and working class students are left to sink or swim on uncaring campuses Along the way he uncovers cutting edge research from the academics leading the way to a new kind of university one where students succeed not because of their background but because of the quality of their minds The result is a call to arms for universities that work for everyone and a manual for how we can make it happen
