Interactive Documentary Kathleen M. Ryan, David Staton, 2022-03-17 Interactive documentary is still an emerging field that eludes concise definitions or boundaries Grounded in practice based research this collection seeks to expand the sometimes exclusionary field giving voice to scholars and practitioners working outside the margins Editors Kathleen M Ryan and David Staton have curated a collection of chapters written by a global cohort of scholars to explore the ways that interactive documentary as a field of study reveals an even broader reach and definition of humanistic inquiry itself The contributors included here highlight how emerging digital technologies collaborative approaches to storytelling and conceptualizations of practice as research facilitate a deeper engagement with the humanistic inquiry at the center of documentary storytelling while at the same time providing agency and voice to groups typically excluded from positions of authority within documentary and practice based research as a whole This collection represents a key contribution to the important and vocal debates within the field about how to avoid replicating colonial practices and privileging This is an important book for practice based researchers as well as advanced level media and communication students studying documentary media practices interactive storytelling immersive media technologies and digital methodologies Forest and Stream, 1891

Noncoercive Threats to Academic, Political, and Economic Freedom Akeel Bilgrami, Jonathan R. Cole, 2025-12-02 States and institutions in both conventionally authoritarian and formally democratic societies overtly circumscribe freedom in any number of ways Yet there are also subtler forms by which authorities and cultural forces compromise the choices of individuals in ways that do not seem at first glance to be coercive This book brings together a distinguished set of scholars to examine covert constraints on academic political and economic freedom from a variety of angles developing surprising and timely new insights Ranging across philosophy economics law health science art and the media luminaries from different fields expose threats to freedom within avowedly liberal and democratic institutions and cultures Their incisive essays both analytical and historical emphasize how economic inequality academic orthodoxy media control racism and gender roles undermine the potential for human flourishing By considering such multifarious noncoercive threats they illuminate the vexed notion of freedom Lively and learned this book offers a provocative and urgent understanding of the often unacknowledged forces that restrict our choices Contributors include David Bromwich Eric Foner Robert Gooding Williams Michael Ignatieff Laura Kipnis Anya Schiffrin Joseph E Stiglitz and Geoffrey R Stone In an essay and an interview with the volume editors Noam Chomsky addresses the neoliberal assault on academic freedom The
