Building Scalable Network Services Cheng Jin,Sugih Jamin,Danny Raz,Yuval Shavitt,2012-12-06 Building Scalable

Network Services Theory and Practice is on building scalable network services on the Internet or in a network service provider s network The focus is on network services that are provided through the use of a set of servers The authors present a tiered scalable network service model and evaluate various services within this architecture The service model simplifies design tasks by implementing only the most basic functionalities at lower tiers where the need for scalability dominates functionality The book includes a number of theoretical results that are practical and applicable to real networks such as building network wide measurement monitoring services and strategies for building better P2P networks Various issues in scalable system design and placement algorithms for service nodes are discussed Using existing network services as well as potentially new but useful services as examples the authors formalize the problem of placing service nodes and provide practical solutions for them

Regionalization of the World Pierre Beckouche,Yann Richard,2024-04-16 On the world

map macro regions or global regions have gradually emerged with varying degrees of success and following different trajectories The authors of this book attempt to determine whether within the context of globalization these macro regions have become an additional level in the spatial deployment of numerous actors and whether they have come to stand between the national and global levels This question has arisen because the increasing scales of trade environmental problems migration routes energy distribution the construction of major infrastructures etc transcend national boundaries and are leading states to implement macro regional cooperation The authors ask whether these large regional groupings are becoming genuine territories and are the fruit of in depth regional integration economic institutional legal normative political cultural and in terms of identity If so these global regions would therefore become referents that make sense and take root in social representations
