TikTok for Authors, Discover how to leverage the power of TikTok to reach new readers build a community and sell more books This book is specifically tailored for non fiction authors wanting to learn TikTok s unique language and trends to effectively promote their published works

Postliterary Attention Theory: Reading, Fragmentation, and Meaning in the Digital Age Shaikh Afnan Birahim,2025-09-22 Postliterary Attention Theory Reading Fragmentation and Meaning in the Digital Age explores how our ability to read deeply has eroded in an era dominated by feeds fragments and dopamine driven design Blending literary history media theory and cognitive science Shaikh Afnan Birahim traces the journey from modernist experimentation to TikTok snippets showing how attention itself has become a cultural battleground This book is both diagnosis and manifesto an invitation to reclaim slow reading as an act of resistance and rediscover the joy intimacy and meaning that only literature can provide

The Digital Future of English Simone Murray,2025-07-18 More than any other academic discipline literary studies is the creation of print culture How then can it thrive in the digital era Early 1990s predictions of the book s imminent demise presented a simplistic either or choice between the legacy of moribund print and triumphalist digital technology Yet we have grown to experience the two media as complexly interdependent and even complementary Clearly digital does not kill print But literary studies in the digital era cannot simply resume business as usual It is urgently necessary to reconsider the discipline s founding assumptions in light of digital technology The digital era prompts a rethinking of literary studies object of study as well as its methods theories audiences and pedagogical practices What counts as literature necessarily shifts in an age of proliferating born digital texts and do it yourself DIY online publication Where should literary studies sit institutionally and how might it graft contextually oriented social sciences methods onto its traditionally humanistic mode of textual analysis Why should literary study continue to marginalize emotional responses to texts when online communities bond via readerly affect Who is the audience for literary criticism in an age where expertise is routinely challenged yet communication with global book loving publics has never been technologically easier Finally how can we utilize digital tools to rejuvenate literary studies pedagogy and help English staff better connect with millennial age students Literary studies has been convulsed for decades by debates over electronic literature and more recently digitally aided distant reading But these discussions still mostly confine themselves to demarcating our proper object of study We need to think more expansively about digital technology s impact on the underpinning tenets of the discipline Literary Media Studies is pitched at fellow literary scholars book historians media theorists cultural sociologists digital humanists and those working at the interface of these converging disciplines It models constructive engagement with contemporary digital culture Most importantly it brings a burst of sorely needed optimism to the question of literary studies digital future

Book People Paige Nick,2025-04-01 A comedy about a group of book lovers who literally lose the plot Norma Jacobs is your average accountant running a book club on Facebook and living quietly with her gamer boyfriend in London Except for the part where she s being threatened by a deranged author and questioned by the police about attempted murder All just as she s started a new job as the only forty two year old intern in the history of publishing Harry Shields is a crime writer desperate to hit the big time when a negative review of his latest book on Norma s page results in him having a spectacular public meltdown He gets cancelled his events get cancelled and before you can say author behaving badly he s plotting revenge and stalking his nemesis By the time Harry s gone viral and Norma s given up trying to stop him the online book club has over a hundred thousand rowdy members and the comments section is a literal riot Entertaining until one member ends up in a coma A savagely funny satire about online media and cancel culture for everyone who thinks books are harmless Social Media Marketing for Book Publishers Miriam J. Johnson,Helen A. Simpson,2022-09-02

Providing a concise toolbox for publishing professionals and students of publishing this book explores the skills needed to master the key elements of social media marketing and therefore stay relevant in this ever competitive industry Taking a hands on practical approach Social Media Marketing for Book Publishers covers topics including researching and identifying actionable insights developing a strategy producing content promotion types community building working with influencers and how to measure success Pulling from years of industry experience the authors main focus is on adult fiction publishing but they also address other areas of the industry including children s young adult YA academic and non fiction The book additionally brings in valuable voices from the wider digital marketing industries featuring excerpts from interviews with experts across search engine optimisation SEO AdWords social platforms community management influencer management and content strategists Social Media Marketing for Book Publishers is a key text for any publishing courses covering how to market books and should find a place on every publishers bookshelf Digital Textualities and Spaces in ELT Theresa Summer,Ralf Gießler,2025-03-31

The digital world opens up a vast number of spaces such as immersive virtual reality digital book corners and discourses marked by hashtags In this volume we argue that digital spaces and textualities should play a more central role in English language teaching and learning ELT emphasising their multimodal and interactive nature as a means of engaging with different layers of meaning in the target language Digital spaces function as contact zones where readers and writers communicate negotiate experiences and shape collective identities Within these spaces digital textualities create opportunities for competence development across various language related domains fostering a critical engagement with texts Bringing together theoretical insights conceptual developments and case studies this volume explores the potential of digital spaces and textualities for ELT while addressing their practical implications

The Persephone Myth in Young Adult Fiction Cristina Salcedo González, 2024-12-12 Investigating the widespread but understudied presence of the Persephone myth within 21st century young adult literature Cristina Salcedo González analyses six young adult novels which incorporate a reworking of this ancient Greek myth Through the identification of mythic themes mythemes and patterns within these novels González shows that these works evoke the female life cycle and develop current perceptions of the female maturational experience As a result Salcedo González makes an important contribution in establishing the cultural significance of young adult literature in the world of classical reception These novels all written by women also inflect or interpret the myth in ways influenced by their contemporary contexts specifically the impact of the novels target readership on the aspects of the myth that are either emphasised e.g Persephone's descent into the underworld her existence there and her re ascent or de emphasised e.g the mourning and wanderings of Demeter This book makes original methodological contributions through its innovative dual perspective of myth criticism and classical reception to our understanding of the academically neglected genre of young adult literature and the reception of the myth of Persephone As a result Salcedo González significantly contributes to establishing the cultural significance of young adult literature within the realm of classical reception
