Early Literacy Instruction and Intervention Donna M. Scanlon, Kimberly L. Anderson, Erica M. Barnes, Joan M. Sweeney, 2024-03-07 This established text and teacher resource is now in a revised and updated third edition with a broader focus on whole class instruction as well as small group and individualized intervention The evidence based Interactive Strategies Approach ISA provides a clear framework for supporting literacy development in grades K 3 particularly for students who experience reading difficulties The book gives teachers the knowledge needed to more effectively use existing curricular materials to meet core instructional goals in the areas of phonemic awareness phonics word solving word learning vocabulary and language skills and comprehension Twenty six reproducible forms can be copied from the book or downloaded and printed from the companion website Of special value the website also features approximately 200 pages of additional printable assessment tools and instructional resources Prior edition title Early Intervention for Reading Difficulties New to This Edition Increased attention to whole class instruction teaching linguistically diverse students writing development and language literacy connections More examples of explicit instructional language including sample scripts Incorporates the latest research about early literacy development and difficulties End of chapter key points and an end of book glossary Additional online only reproducible tools including ISA lesson sheets JEBPS Vol 17-N2 Journal of Evidence-Based Practices for Schools, 2018-12-21 Unreal Education: Beyond Report Cards Elaine Mellon, 2012-03-02 This book was written for every parent who has ever struggled with that uneasy anxious apprehensive gut feeling You are convinced something is wrong or perhaps different with your child but you just cant put your finger on it You talk to teachers administrators anyone who will listen They suggest this or tell you to do that You know deep down inside that it probably isnt the solution but you are not the expert so you do what you are told Slowly the school year goes by then the next and the next and nothing changes Sometimes you start to feel like you are going crazy that you are obsessing This book is for any parent who has lost hope to know that you are not alone It is for the parent who needs to ask questions but does not know where to find answers Most of all I hope through our story some parents will feel empowered enough to fight for their child no matter what it takes without fear of retribution from their school system You are your childs best advocate You need to speak up Whatever issues you might be having with your child there is something in our story for everyone Included are actual emails transcripts and more I want to share the pain the fear the joy the uncertainty some direction and hopefully some insight You must look beyond the report cards but prepare yourself You might uncover your own incredible mind boggling unbelievable stories that may seem absurdly unREAL Power, Culture, and Family-School Relations Jen Stacy, 2025-01-30 Power Culture and Family School Relations Towards Culturally Sustaining Practices explores the extent to which common practices in school based family outreach advance equity or sustain the status quo in power and cultural relations Using a rich ethnographic account of a school based family literacy program in Nebraska the book unfolds the daily cultural practices of the program so that readers may visualize and contemplate how and if the program serves newcomer and refugee families within the unique context of the New Latine Diaspora The author draws upon critical theory to showcase how neoliberal and deficit ideologies are at play throughout the different aspects of the program the influence these ideologies have on the participants and the tactics used by the caregivers to resist and change the programmatic structures and curriculum to meet their needs As such the book invites educators administrators and scholars into the nebulous and difficult conversation about how schools paradoxical entities that often colonize but prospectively liberate must not just rethink how they work with parents and caregivers but rather dismantle traditional cultural practices that seek to assimilate minoritized families Showcasing the power of ethnography as a tool which can be used to support educators and scholars to understand cultural elements of family outreach programs on a semiotic level and how transforming these semiotic building blocks can lead to equitable relationships it will appeal to scholars and researchers with interests in adult education social foundations of education critical ethnography multilingual Adult Basic Education and family outreach
